24 KILLED KANSAS TORNADO LEAVES DEATH AND DESTRUCTION IN ITS WAKE. INJURED 35

SWEEPS A TOWN IN THE NIGHT.

People Were Killed While They Slept in Their Homes.

Distressing Scenes Are Witnessed With the Break of Day.

MARQUETTE, Kas., May 9.—Twenty-four persons are known to have been killed and over thirty-five injured in a tornado, the most disastrous in the history of Central Kansas, which swept over this portion of the State at midnight.

One large section of Marquette, where the principal loss of life occurred, was entirely wiped out. Reports from the surrounding country show that the destruction of life and property was widespread, and the list of dead and injured is growing constantly. A storeroom has been converted into a temporary morgue and at 9:30 twenty-four dead bodies had been brought in. Following the storm the utmost confusion prevailed and it will be some time before the actual extent of the storm is known.

The known dead are:

GUS ANDERSON.
TILLIE ELLERSON.
MRS. A. VANDERSON.
MRS. ELMER HULGREN.
BLANCHE SWITZER.
LENA SWITZER.
NINA SWITZER.
ANNA COULSON.
M. NELSON, WIFE AND THREE CHILDREN.
S. SJORGREN SR.
OLAF HANSON AND WIFE.
GOTTFRIS NELSON, WIFE AND CHILD.
CHARLES ROBERTS.
UNKNOWN WOMAN.

The most seriously injured are:

V. A. ANDERSON.
O. S. ELVIN AND WIFE.
MRS. C. McCORMICK.
CHARLES ROBERTS, WIFE AND THREE CHILDREN.
M. SJORGREN.
MRS. BERG.
BEATA SWENSON.
M. COULSON AND THREE CHILDREN.
SWAN HART.
ROSE BRITTAIN.

WILLIAM BARCLAY AND WIFE.
ANNA DITTLOFF.
JOHN DITTLOFF.
OLAF CARLSEN.
MRS. JOHN A. CARLSEN.
ANDREW PETERSON AND WIFE

WHEN DAYLIGHT BROKE.

When daylight broke over the town it found the entire population in a state of panic. Business was entirely suspended and every one who escaped turned his attention toward aiding the wounded.

The tornado formed three miles south of Marquette and did not spend its force until it had passed many miles north of the town.

In Marquette the residence portion west of the main street suffered the most damage. The houses in the course of the tornado were with two or three exceptions, completely wrecked. In this section there were a number of modern residences, of which only one, the house of R. A. Thompson, was left standing. The Swedish Lutheran and Methodist churches were among the first buildings struck and they, together with the parsonage adjoining the Methodist church, were completely demolished.

TERRIFIC STORM.

Yesterday afternoon had been hot and oppressive, the atmosphere loaded with electricity. Late in the evening a terrific rain storm broke over the town. The rain continued to fall in torrents until 11:55 last night when the tornado struck. Within less than five minutes it had wrought its terrible work and passed on. Telegraph and telephone wires were carried down and it was several hours before the outside world could be apprised of the plight of the city.

It was not until 8 o'clock that physicians and surgeons began arriving from surrounding towns. In the meantime dozens of willing hands set to work to clear away the debris and extricate the dead and injured. The Swedish Lutheran parsonage and several private residences were turned into temporary hospitals, while the dead were taken to the store room of Olaf Olsen and laid out in rows, awaiting identification.

DISTRESSING SCENES.

Just before daybreak a representative of the Associated Press made the rounds of the different places. In one room in the Lutheran parsonage he found six injured and in an adjoining room were five corpses of persons who had died from injuries after they had been brought in. In half a dozen other houses similar scenes were found. Dr. Lund, the Lutheran pastor, was passing about among the suffering, ministering to their comfort, while two score other persons, working under his direction, cared for the injured at other points.

When the missing in Marquette had been pretty thoroughly accounted for the searchers directed their attention to the surrounding country. Soon half a dozen wagon loads of dead and injured had been brought to the town from the district adjoining it on the south.

NARROW ESCAPES.

The sufferers tell of many narrow escapes from death. Ione Saileen, the infant daughter of Charles Saileen, was lifted in her bed and carried to the middle of the street, receiving only a few scratches. Saileen and his wife were dangerously injured.

The mattress upon which the baby daughter of the Rev. Smith lay was doubled up in such a manner as to cover the child and protect it from falling timbers. In spite of the destruction of the Smith house, the entire family escaped uninjured.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Ellvin were carried on their bed a distance of 500 feet and laid down without being seriously injured.

CAME AT MIDNIGHT.

The tornado cut a clean swath 100 yards in width through its entire length. Coming at midnight, the people were caught without a moment's warning. Some of the victims were killed as they lay asleep; others maimed and bleeding awoke to find themselves buried in the wreckage of their former homes.

AFTER STORM A LULL.

Following the storm came a lull. Soon cries of the injured and frightened people could be heard on every hand. Men with lanterns appeared here and there among the wreckage and as quickly as possible the work of rescue was begun. Progress was slow because of the darkness and it was some time before anything like a systematic effort could be made to remove the injured and before aid was asked of neighboring towns.

Marquette is a town of 1,500 people in McPherson county. It is in the exact center of Kansas and in the richest farming country in the State.

ROJESVENSKY'S OPPONENT—ADMIRAL TOGO ON HIS FLAGSHIP.

BIRDSALL ROBBED HIS EMPLOYER.

He Plunged to Recover His Losses and Became a Thief.

Police Will Arrest Him on Charge of Embezzlement.

Made desperate by frequent losses at the race track, J. D. Birdsall, local manager for L. C. Sheldon, took $1900 of his employer's money Saturday and decided to risk his honor and his name on one final plunge on the "ponies."

He lost.

Now he is a fugitive from justice and is branded everywhere as a thief.

The police think he has fled beyond the borders of this State; his friends say they expect his dead body to be found either in the bay or in some lonely spot near Oakland. They say he could never live through the disgrace that he has brought upon himself.

TRUSTED AGENT

L. C. Sheldon does an extensive hay and grain business in San Francisco, where he has offices in room 304, Merchants' Exchange building. With E. S. Smith he maintains a large branch at Second and Market streets, Oakland.

Several years ago young Birdsall entered the employment of Sheldon, and his strict attention to business and good judgment in business affairs soon won him the confidence of his employer.

His advancement was rapid and three years ago he was given charge of the firm's Oakland branch.

Prosperity proved too much for the young man and it is said his head was turned by the confidence reposed in him. Naturally of a speculative disposition, it is charged that he began buying wheat and lost heavily. Then he tried the races with like results.

FINAL PLUNGE

Birdsall is said to have lost all his salary on the races and also considerable money that he had borrowed from friends. Then he grew desperae. Last Saturday morning he awoke to a realization that if he could not win that day he would be a ruined man, for it was the last day of the racing season.

In a moment of recklessness he decided to make a final plunge. It meant either recovered fortunes or dishonor.

He decided to take the risk.

Going to the safe, he took two drafts, aggregating $1900, and cashed them. Then, it is charged, he went to the track in a last desperate effort to regain his losses. He played his last card and failed.

LEARN OF THEFT

It was not till noon yesterday that Sheldon learned that his trusted agent was an absconder Birdsall did not appear during the day and at noon a statement from the bank showed that the two drafts had been cashed. A hasty examination of the books proved that they were in excellent shape and the theft of the money secured on the two drafts are the only peculations that can be traced to Birdsall.

It is not thought that Birdsall embezzled anything until Saturday.

Mr. Sheldon waited till last evening and then went before Police Judge Smith and swore to a complaint charging Birdsall with embezzlement. A warrant was issued and Detectives Holand and Kyte are now searching for the missing man.

SUGGESTS SUICIDE

"I do not think Birdsall has fled from the State," said A. Henno, who was placed in charge of the business when Birdsall failed to appear yesterday. "It is more likely that he has jumped into the bay, or taken his life in some other manner. He was a proud young man and I don't think he would face the disgrace he has brought upon himself. I think he cashed the drafts in a last desperate effort to get even with the world.

"Birdsall was at the office for a short time Saturday morning, but seemed preoccupied and left shortly after I arrived. He was again at the office yesterday morning, before the other employes arrived, but he has not been seen since. The drafts went to the bank and it was not until noon yesterday that we learned they had been cashed.

"I attribute the downfall of Birdsall to his speculations at the race track."

WOULD NOT TAKE HIM TO THE PARTIES.

Mr. Jones Tired of Being Nobody and Doing the Cooking.

Mrs. Roy Gillam Spent Too Much Time With E. Grandjean.

Life with Laura E. Jones is too strenuous for James A. Jones, according to a complaint in a divorce action brought by the husband today. He is as anxious to get rid of her now as he was to marry her in the first place. They have lived together less than a year, but in that time his eyes have been opened considerably and he says that marriage as he has seen it is not all that it is "cracked up" to be.

GOES TO PARTIES

As often as five times a week Mrs. Jones goes out to parties, alone. When he asks if he cannot go, she says that he cannot, as she does not want him tagging along. When it comes to getting up in the morning, Jones has to get up and cook his own breakfast. She tells him that she did not marry him to cook for him, and that if he wants anything to eat he can get it for himself.

One night when she came home she was in a bad temper and when Jones expostulated with her, she told him that she was in no humor to take any of his talk, and struck him in the face.

When he wanted her to go and call with him on his family, she told him that she had no use for them and that they could all go to the bad place for all she cared. The last straw was finally broken and now Jones wants a divorce.

GOULDS HAVE SETTLED

The troubles of Clara A. Gould and Henry Gould have been finally settled and she is to get an assured income of $40 a month from two houses at Eleventh and Campbell streets. She has withdrawn her suit against Henry Gould, president of the H. Gould Company, which owns the Encinal Mills at Fourth and Washington streets. Suit for maintenance was begun by Mrs. Gould some time ago, she alleging that she was forced to live on $3 a week while her husband had his thousands. He is blind in both eyes.

Last week Judge Waste made an order granting her $35 a month alimony pending the settlement of the suit, and in the meantime Attorneys John J. Allen and Frederick Whitney, representing the parties, have made a settlement whereby Mrs. Gould is to get an assured income of $40 a month and has agreed to drop further action in the matter.

GILLAMS DIVORCED

Roy L. Gillam was granted a divorce this morning by Judge Melvin from Alice Gillam on the ground of cruelty. He alleged that she would stay out late and that she spent many evenings with one E. Grandjean and that finally he got tired of her actions.

O'CONNELLS ARE FIGHTING

The troubles of Margaret O'Connell and her husband, John D., a dealer in hay and coal, are being threshed out today before Judge Ellsworth. They formerly lived in Moraga Valley, but now reside in this city. She charges him with cruelty and says that he made her carry water and build her own fires and refused to take her out. He also referred to her mother in unpleasant language. She took the stand this morning and was led over the ground of her complaint by Attorney J. Burke. This afternoon Attorney Griffin for O'Connell is endeavoring to combat her testimony in favor of his client.

KILLED ON THE TRAIN

Well Known Man Kills His Partner in the South.

HOUSTON, Tex., May 9.—Edwin Calhoun was shot and killed on board an incoming San Antonio and Arkansas passenger train at Wallis today by W. T. Eldridge of San Antonio, Texas, formerly vice-president and general manager of the Cane Belt railroad. Calhoun is a brother-in-law of Captain William O. Donovant, who was killed by Eldridge about three years ago on a passenger train on the same road. Eldridge was recently acquitted of murdering Captain Donovant.

Today's tragedy grew out of the murder of Donovant and subsequent attempts made upon the life of Eldridge. Eldridge was shot through the lungs by an unknown party but recovered. Dissension over the control of the Cane Belt railroad, in which Eldridge and Donovant were jointly interested, resulted in the killing of Donovant, since which time a feud is said to have existed between relatives of the deceased and Eldridge. All of the parties are prominent.

M'CABE IS FOUND

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—James W. McCabe, for many years a deputy in the Tax Collector's office, who was missing yesterday, has been found. He has turned up in the detention ward of the Central Emergency Hospital with a very bad case of delirium tremens on his hands and with little goblins and red caterpillars prancing about his cell in a most annoying fashion.

McCabe has just wound up what his friends are pleased to term his second bi-annual drunk, and it took about all the bromide the hospital surgeons could spare today to subdue the deputy and induce sleep. He was taken to the hospital at 8 o'clock this morning by friends, who quickly left without giving their names. He had been kicking up a row at his home, No. 5 Sanchez street, and was brought in, as the mysterious friend said, to be "braced up."

WOMAN DIES FROM WOUNDS

POMONA, Cal., May 9.—Mrs. Nora A. Mason, who was frightfully burned by her clothing catching fire from a gasoline stove last night, died at six o'clock this morning. Mrs. Mason received the fatal burns in attempting to keep the flames away from her two babies, who were in the same room with her.

BURGLARS IN STORE

Thieves at Centerville Fail to Secure Much Plunder.

CENTERVILLE, May 9.—The general merchandise store and postoffice conducted by Hawes & Dusterberry at this place, was broken into between midnight and morning by thieves, who, however, failed to secure any large amount of booty.

The stamps had been locked up in the safe and were not disturbed. The money drawer was broken open and between $5 and $10 taken.

A large assortment of pocket knives were stolen and the place generally rummaged.

An entrance was effected by breaking in the glass in the upper panel of the front door and the thieves then climbed through and made their way out in the same way the door still being locked when the proprietors went there to open up this morning.

A man by the name of E. Santos, who lives just at the back of the store, heard a noise and voices in the place about 2 o'clock, but thought that it was some one belonging to the place and paid no attention to it.

It is believed that whoever did it lives in the neighborhood and that some of the stolen plunder will sooner or later betray the thieves to light.

JEWS ARE KILLED

Battle With Orthodox Christians--Many Fall in Streets.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 9.—The report in circulation here last night that there had been a massacre of Jews at Zhitomir, government of Volhynia, Southwestern Russia, is confirmed in a dispatch to the Novosti, which says the rioting began May 7 and continued for forty-eight hours.

Orthodox Christians fell upon the Jews in the streets.

The Jews were armed and fought their assailants, many being killed or wounded on both sides.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 9.—Private dispatches from Zhitomir attribute the attack upon the Jews to articles in M. Kroushevans paper.

Twelve persons were killed and fifty were wounded.

On Sunday the Jews telegraphed to friends in St. Petersburg to ask the authorities to take strong measures for their protection, and orders to that effect were sent.

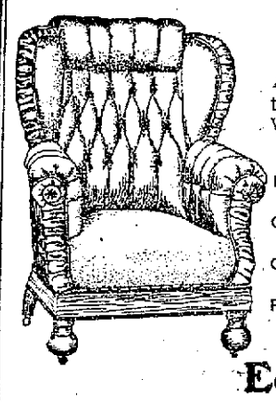

A renewal of the fighting was expected today.

Commenting upon the news, the Novosti remarks upon the coincidence that M. Kroushevan (the former editor of the Bessarabie of Kishineff held to be responsible for the massacre of 1903 at that place) had hardly returned to Kishineff and started the publication of a paper, the Friend, before Jewish massacres commenced in the neighborhood.

OAKLAND BANK OF SAVINGS ELECTS OFFICERS.

Henry Rogers For President, W. W. Garthwaite, Vice-President and Manager, J. Y. Eccleston, Cashier.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of The Oakland Bank of Savings held yesterday afternoon, Mr. Henry Rogers was elected president of the bank, to succeed the late Isaac L. Requa.

Mr. W. W. Garthwaite was elected vice-president and manager, and Mr. J. Y. Eccleston, cashier and secretary.

Mr. F. A. Allardt and Mr. Samuel Breck were elected assistant cashiers, and Mr. Jas. A. Thomson, assistant secretary.

Mr. Henry Rogers has been associated with the bank in various capacities for thirty-five years. As a member of the Board of Directors, of the Auditing Committee and of the Finance Committee and as vice-president, he has proven himself an invaluable adjunct to the bank.

There is probably not a safer counselor in the county of Alameda. His functions as president will be principally of an advisory nature.

Mr. Garthwaite has been connected with the institution thirty-three years, entering the bank June 1, 1872, as note clerk. In 1878 he was elected cashier and secretary, later a member of the Board of Directors, member of the Finance Committee and trustee for the bank under deeds of trust.

Under the title of vice-president and manager he will be the executive head of the bank.

Mr. Eccleston has been a valuable officer of the bank for many years and recently as assistant cashier. He is a man of sterling character, with a rare faculty for making friends and worthy of the great trust reposed in him.

The remaining officers, Messrs. Allardt, Breck and Thomson, are well tried and efficient men of long experience, having been with the bank for the past fifteen or twenty years.

The selections will give general satisfaction both to the public and to the stockholders of the bank.

ROJESTVENSKY DID NOT LIKE TO LEAVE PORT.

French Admiral Had to Force Him to Get Out of Territorial Waters.

PARIS, May 9.—Orders have been sent to the civil and naval authorities in French Indo-China not to permit the junction within French waters of the Russian naval forces under Admiral Rojestvensky and Rear Admiral Nebogatoff.

Instructions have also been sent to Admiral Dejonquieres, the French naval commander, to see that Rojestvensky fully observes the promise he has already given to leave French waters.

These orders resulted from the receipt of a detailed dispatch giving account of Admiral Dejonquieres meeting with Admiral Rojestvensky. The dispatch says the Russian squadron made a four days' cruise outside the four mile limit and then returned last Saturday, anchoring at Konghai bay, coast of Annam, to take on provisions and fresh water.

When Admiral Dejonquieres was informed of the Russian's return he proceeded to Konghai and requested Admiral Rojestvensky to immediately withdraw outside the territorial waters. The Rusian Admiral gave Desjonquieres his word that he intended to leave his anchorage and take to the open sea. He also informed Dejonquieres that in his communications with the land he had not violated any of the neutrality rules. The Russian Admiral said he would depart the following day.

The French Admiral then returned from Konghai to apprise the French government of the result of the interview. He returned to Konghai today to find out if the Russian ships had left, but found them still there but preparing to depart. Admiral Rojestvensky assured him that they would depart during the night.

GRAND JURY

Investigates Alleged Attempt to Destroy Building By Fire.

The Grand Jury met this morning and took up the investigation of a suspicious fire, called to its attention by a representative of the United Fire Insurance Company, that occurred at 760 Seventh street on April 8.

The down stairs of the building was occupied by Max Dohrmann as a paint shop, while up stairs James Elliott and his wife live.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Elliott about 6 o'clock in the evening, and was first attracted by the smell of burning rags. She went out on their back porch and saw smoke issuing from the part of the building directly under her and ran out and notified her husband, who was sitting on the sidewalk in front of the building.

Elliott, with the assistance of Komataro Takato, a Japanese, immediately began to fight the fire, and had it pretty well under control when the fire department arrived on the scene.

According to the story told by Fire Chief Ball to the Grand Jury, it looked to him when he arrived as if a deliberate attempt had been made to burn the whole building.

There was what he termed a "fire train" the full length of the building, consisting of shavings, rags, paper, cans partly filled with oil and a variety of inflammable materials. The fire started under a sink at the rear of the building and the train led away from it clear to the front of the building, a distance of about eighty feet.

He stated that when he arrived there the fire was pretty well subdued, but he noted the arrangement of the place and this ridge of materials running along the center of the floor.

M. Heynemann, the adjuster for the insurance company, stated that Dohrmann had his paints and brushes and fixtures in the place insured for $1500. He said that when he went over to look at the place he found out what looked to him to be a very peculiar arrangement of things and he concluded not to pay the demand for damages and brought the matter to the attention of the jurors.

Dohrmann, who has since moved his place of business to Twenty-sixth and Adeline streets, James Elliott and Takato, the Japanese, were all summoned as witnesses and told their stories of what they saw and knew of the circumstances.

BOSS PLUMBERS IN SESSION

CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION IS HOLDING A MEETING AT SACRAMENTO.

SACRAMENTO, May 9.—A large crowd of men and women was assembled in Maple hall of the Masonic Temple at 10 o'clock this morning, when the fifth annual State Convention of the Master Plumbers' Association of California opened. Maple hall was decorated in a very pretty manner with flags, flowers and palms.

The meeting was called to order by Thomas Scott, who introduced W. Mott as the chairman. Mr. Mott, after making a short address of welcome, presented State President Frank Jay. He made a short speech in introducing Mayor W. J. Hussett, who made a happy address of welcome to the delegates of the convention, at the conclusion of which three cheers were given by the delegates in the Mayor's honor.

The convention then went into executive session.

of Ague and Malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday of Henrietta, Texas, writes: 'My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At Osgoods' drug stores, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington streets. Price 50c; guaranteed.

JAPAN'S THREATS ARE NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY.

Russian Authorities Say That Rojestvensky Has Not Violated Neutrality.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 9.—The Japanese threats against France are not taken very seriously here. The Russian authorities continue to maintain that Admiral Rojestvensky has not overstepped the limits of neutrality.

In view of the excited state of the Japanese over the possibility of the fruits of their previous land and sea victories being swept away, Japan's protests are considered quite natural, but her monitory attitude toward a chivalrous country like France is regarded as a blunder. While great Britain is expected to support her ally and secure fair play, should Japan press France too far, Great Britain, it is said, can be counted upon to use all her influence to calm the statesmen at Tokio.

The interests of Japan could not be served, according to an opinion here, by an extension of the hostilities unless Admiral Togo is beaten, in which case it is not doubted that Japan will use the pretext of French violation of neutrality to demand the fulfillment of Great Britain's obligations as her ally.

MAKES FUN OF JAPAN.

The opinion is held in some quarters that it is exactly this contingency which Japan has in view. All the newspapers discuss the subject, the Novoe Vremya very sarcastically picturing Japan as the great dominating power of the world laying down the law, issuing orders and making Admiral Rojestvensky a veritable outlaw, driven from place to place at Japan's bidding.

"And poor Rojestvensky," the paper continues, "wearied and not knowing where to go, remains where he is. But why does not the great Togo, who knows so well where his enemy is anchored, attack him and thus end all the complications? That would be better than placing an embargo on French ships and more simple than bombarding the ports of French Indo-China. Japan has grown very pompous. Her frown inspires the world with awe, but it is passing strange that Rojestvensky has not been seized with the universal fright."

FRANCE DID WELL.

The Novosti says France did well to come to an understanding with Great Britain, in view of the danger which threatens Indo-China, which the paper insists is not imaginary.

"From the beginning of the war," continues the Novosti, "Japan has done everything in her power to exhaust France's patience and force her to take a dangerous step, and until now France has shown tact and moderation. Japan may desire to draw in France, but this is impossible in view of Great Britain's reserve."

WARNS JAPAN.

The Sviet warns Japan against offending French pride and says the French fleet would not leave a trace of Togo on the sea. The paper accuses Great Britain, which, it says, hastened the present war, of being behind all these machinations. "Great Britain," the Sviet adds, "is the nightmare of French Ministers."

The Russ insists that the situation is in no sense critical, saying:

"Great Britain fears nothing so much as war. She sees the terrible specter of Germany, which impatiently awaits a false step of Great Britain, so Great Britain can be relied upon to counsel her ally not to draw in a third power."

FROM LONDON.

LONDON, May 9.—The situation arising in the Far East because of the alleged violation of French neutrality in Indo-China by Admiral Rejestvensky's squadron and the possibility of Great Britain becoming involved formed the subject of a question to Premier Balfour in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Mr. Balfour in reply read a statement supplied to the British Government by the French Ambassador, M. Cambon, as follows:

"As soon as the French Government was aware of Admiral Rojestvensky's presence at Kamranh bay representations were sent to St. Petersburg, with the result that under the orders of the Emperor himself instructions were telegraphed to the admiral desiring him to leave Kamranh bay at once. The Russian squadron subsequently was reported to be at Honkohe bay, a few miles north of Kamranh bay. Admiral Dejonquieres, commanding the French station, was sent there to report. He found Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron there, though not inside of the French territorial waters. Thereupon the Governor of French China, having received instructions to see that French neutrality was duly respected, sent the French Resident at Nka Trang, the nearest point to that place, with directions to ask the Russian admiral to leave. The admiral promised to do so on May 3.

"As regards the reports that the Russian squadron received valuable assistance from the French authorities at Kamranh bay, I am informed there are only two Frenchmen there, neither of whom is an official, but there are holders of concessions from the French Government in that place."

MATTERS PLACED ON RECORDS

A contract for the erection of a two-story house on Summit avenue, to cost $9000, has been let by Margaret B. Fowler to D. B. Farquharson.

The Contra Costa Water Company has purchased five acres of land from Denis Harrington along Canal street, in the town of Alvarado.

The Board of Education has filed a map dedicating as public streets certain strips of land through the property purchased by it from A. F. Poirier.

Patrick Mulvihill has given Ransdell & Durgin a contract for the erection of a two-story building at the southeast corner of Fifty-fifth street and Telegraph avenue.

Samuel M. Somerville has given George E. Burch a chattel mortgage for $400 on his tools, electric motor and fixings at 215 San Pablo avenue.

F. C. Heinemann has mortgaged his jewelry tools and office fixtures at 1003½ Broadway to Klara Haller for $100.

FIRST BERRIES.

The first loganberries received for exhibition purposes at the Board of Trade were brought in today by A. G. avis. There berries grew in the garden in the rear of Mr. Davis's home at 1225 Adeline street and several of the berries are over an inch in length. Naturally they are attracting considerable attention.

STOCK BROKERS ARE INSOLVENT

BOSTON, May 9.—The Haigat and Freese company, stock brokers, this city, went into the hands of receivers today and all their offices, several of which are in this city, with many scattered throughout New England, are closed.

The concern was petitioned into receivership proceedings by Mrs. Anna L. H. Weiss, administratrix of her husband's estate. In her petition Mrs. Weiss set forth that her husband, who was a stockholder, advanced funds which were to be invested by the corporation. She brought suit demanding an accounting, and failing to get satisfaction, petitioned for a receiver.

NEW YORK, May 9.—At the office of the Haight and Freese Corporation here a representative said

"No demands have been made against us and we are doing business as usual. We are completely in the dark as to the meaning of the suit."

When news of the Boston court proceedings became known a line of customer formed to withdraw their accounts. Harvey Watson, secretary of the company, said that his firm would pay 100 cents on the dollar.

PRIZE DIVIDED.

BREMEN, May 9.—The board of judges of the German Schiller Society has divided the prize of $1500 offered for the best play written during 1904, in Germany, equally between Gerhard Hauptmann, author of "Rise Berdt," Karl Hauptmann, author of "The Miners' Tool Maker" and Bere Hauffmann, author of "Count von Charolais."

A CORRECTION.

COFFEE HEART

Very Plain in Some People.

A great many people go on suffering from annoying ailments for a long time before they can get their own consent to give up the indulgence from which their trouble arises.

A gentleman in Brooklyn describes his experience, as follows:

"I became satisfied some months ago that I owed the palpitation of the heart from which I suffered almost daily, to the use of coffee. (I had been a coffee drinker for 30 years) but I found it very hard to give up the beverage.

"I realized that I must give up the harmful indulgence in coffee but I felt the necessity for a hot table drink, and as tea is not to my liking, I was at a loss for awhile, what to do.

"One day I ran across a very sensible and straightforward presentation of the claims of Postum Food Coffee, and was so impressed thereby that I concluded to give it a trial. My experience with it was unsatisfactory till I learned how it ought to be prepared—by thorough boiling for not less than fifteen or twenty minutes. After I learned that lesson there was no trouble. Postum Food Coffee proved to be a most palatable and satisfactory hot beverage, and I have used it ever since.

"The effect on my health has been most salutary. It has completely cured the heart palpitation from which I used to suffer so much, particularly after breakfast, and I never have a return of it except when I dine or lunch away from home and am compelled to drink the old kind of coffee because Postum is not served. I find that Postum Food Coffee cheers and invigorates while it produces no harmful stimulation." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Michigan.

There's a reason.

Ten days' trial proves an eye opener to many.

ALAMEDA COUNTY MEDICOS

YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN WHO BECOME DOCTORS THIS EVENING.

Cooper Medical College of San Francisco will tonight confer the title of medical doctor upon thirty-seven young men and young women, of whom eight are residents of Alameda county.

The commencement exercises will take place in the auditorium of the college, for which invitations have been issued to the members of the graduating class for distribution among their friends. It is understood that a large number of people from this side of the bay will be in attendance.

The program will comprise several orchestral overtures, prayer by Rev. George G. Eldredge; an address by Professor C. N. Ellinwood, who will confer the degrees of M. D. and LL. D., and an address by Edward R. Taylor, dean of the Hastings College of Law.

The graduates from this county are William Leon Channell, Oakland; Percival Dolman, B. S., Berkeley; Frank Weston Edmonds, Berkeley; Joseph Bettencourt Perry, Haywards; Alva Jacob Remmel, B. S., Alameda; Harry Lesel Swanger, Oakland; Irving Scott Zelmer, Oakland, and Thaddeus M. McNamara Jr., Oakland. These are all bright and studious young people, and officers of the college say that as a whole the class is the most promising which has ever left the college.

Thaddeus M. McNamara Jr., the name last mentioned, is a son of Attorney T. M. McNamara of Jayne avenue in this city. He is a graduate of the college at St. Mary's, Neosho county, Kansas, and has not only been among the most studious of the present graduating class, but he has also stood among the leaders in the examinations for the coveted degree of M. D. in this well-known institution.

ON TRIAL FOR ROBBING TOURIST

The trial of George Thompson, an alleged pickpocekt was begun this morning before Judge Wells of Contra Costa county sitting in the place of Judge W. E. Greene.

Thompson, with a man by the name of Norion and another by the name of Murphy, jostled J. D. Inlow as he was about to leave the Seventh street local at Oak street on February 12th last, and it is claimed by Inlow that he discovered Thompson while in the act of taking his hand out of his pocket and that he stole $10 from him.

Inlow made an outcry and chase was given and the three men captured and placed under arrest.

Inlow had come to Oakland from the East with his daughter and had a roll of bills to the amount of $4,200 in his pocket which however he had tied into his clothes with a piece of string for fear of pickpockets.

Thompson is defended by attorney A. L. Frick and M. C. Chapman, while District Attorney John J. Allen is prosecuting the case for the people.

SIGHTS WARSHIPS.

HONG KONG, May 9.—The German steamer Neumalen arrived today from Colombo, March 23, and reported having sighted twenty-five vessels, of which twenty were warships, in the vicinity of Kamranh bay, Annam, May 5.

The coasting steamer Haimun, which also has reached this port, observed a Japanese cruiser off Amoy, Straits of Formosa.

EXCITING PLAY AT LIBERTY

"IVAN THE TERRIBLE" WELL PRODUCED BY BISHOP'S PLAYERS.

"Ivan the Terrible," was produced at the Ye Liberty Theater last night in the presence of a large audience. Both Gilmore and Landers Stevens have excellent characters and in the last act of the play they both share honors with the public.

Miss Adele Block has a pleasing character and as usual she wins her way to the hearts of the audience.

Robert Elliott as the jester does good work as do the minor characters in the play.

"Ivan the Terrible" is strenuous enough for the ordinary theater goers. The play is replete with excitement from beginning to end. It is splendidly staged and is sure to make a hit during the week.

The Liberty management never do anything by half way, and the staging of "Ivan the Terrible" is excellent in every respect.

A Good Family Liniment.

Every family should be supplied with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For cuts, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, which are of frequent occurrence, there is nothing so good. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment. As it is an antiseptic all danger from blood poisoning is avoided. Sold by Osgood Bros., corner Twelfth and Washington streets and corner Seventh and Broadway.

FLOUR FAMINE

Supply is Running Short Because of Chicago Strike.

CHICAGO, May 9.—Shortage in delivery of flour to grocers and bakers was threatened by a fresh spread of the teamsters' strike today. The latest recruits are the drivers of the Wenig Teaming Company, a large concern chiefly engaged in delivering flour for milling companies. All of the men quit work when one of them was discharged for refusing to deliver to boycotted department stores. A direct result of the strike will be a shortage of 15,000 barrels of flour a week, according to George K. Wenig.

"Unless we can get the Employers' Association to help us the strike means an immediate shortage of the flour supply," said Mr. Wenig. "If the strike continues there will be a flour famine. I expect to apply to the association at once."

STRIKE IMPENDED.

Another strike of even greater importance impended today. The Crane Company, controlling most of the material in the steamfitting and gasfitting industries, may be involved through the discharge of two drivers who refused to deliver material at the Marshal Field building.

The Crane Company employs a large number of teamsters, who promptly sought instructions from the leaders as to whether the strike of other teamsters should be imitated.

It was said that conferences of the Teamsters' Union officials and representatives of the Crane Company would be held in the hope of averting a new strike upheaval.

The Crane Company gives employment to 25,000 men, directly or indirectly, through its mills, foundries and warehouses. Should a strike of the Crane teamsters be declared the building industry of the entire city would be badly handicaped.

IS AGGRESSIVE.

While the strike was today assuming a more threatening attitude, the Employers' Teaming Company is becoming increasingly aggressive. Today 1800 teams were sent out and the company promised to furnish teamsters to do the work of all drivers who quit. The delivery of retail goods was further extended and the number of deputy sheriffs and special police was increased.

IS ATTACKED.

Although surrounded by six guards, a non-union teamster was knocked off his wagon today and severely injured by strike sympathizers. The victim was Joseph St. John, who was attacked while driving one of the Peabody Coal Company's wagons near Kinzie street bridge. He suddenly found his way blocked by teams manned with union drivers, while rocks were hurled by strike sympathizers in a crowd that gathered. One of the missiles struck St. John on the head; inflicting a severe wound and felling him to the pavement. With much difficulty the guards succeeded in getting him extricated.

The executive board of the Chicago Federation of Labor met today to appoint a committee to meet the President's train west of Dixon, Ill., and explain to him the strike situation here before he reaches Chicago.

YOUR LAST CHANCE TO JOIN A CLUB.

On Account of the Rains of Last Week the Co-Operative Piano Clubs Were Not Quite Filled Saturday Night. You Still Have a Day or Two More.

YESTERDAY SEVEN MORE MEMBERSHIPS WERE TAKEN AND AT THIS RATE THE CLUBS WILL NOT REMAIN OPEN LONGER THAN THURSDAY AT THE LATEST. IF YOU WANT A PIANO WITHIN THE NEXT FIVE YEARS, GET IT NOW—NOT A WEEK FROM NOW WHEN THE CLUB OPPORTUNITY IS PAST.

This is your opportunity and it is within three days of being past. Do you want a piano? Do you want to get it at a wholesale instead of regular retail price? You expect to purchase a piano sometime—everybody does. Can you not afford to pay a small deposit and get it NOW—Now when Co-operation is still the theme and when five hundred other buyers are joining their purchasing forces in order to make the greatest saving in price?

We have stated in the papers that an absolute saving of from $50 to $150 was to be made by joining one of these clubs and becoming one of five hundred purchasers instead of buying alone. We have shown why that saving can be made and we have quoted hundreds of people who have stated above their signatures that this saving was as represented.

HAVE YOU BEEN ONE OF THEM?

People have responded by the hundreds to these announcements. Have you been one of them? Will you be one of them? It will only take you half an hour to convince yourself that four hundred and seventy buyers have made a good choice.

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO BE AN EXPERT TO KNOW WHEN A PIANO HAS BEEN CUT ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

There are less than thirty more Club pianos to be had. Do you want one of them? They are going like ribbon at a bargain counter. Ladies are looking them over and choosing from them every hour of the day and evening. You have just about two days more in which to decide. These Co-operative Piano Buying Clubs are worth looking into. Take our word for it and come in. POMMER-EILERS MUSIC CO., Twelfth and Clay streets, Oakland. Open evenings till the sale closes.

How About Your Vacation?

Planned it yet? decided where you will go? or when? Now we want to "butt" into these questions with a suggestion about WHAT YOU ARE GOING TO NEED IN WEARING APPAREL.

We don't care what you eat—how many fish you catch—or what size; nor do we worry about the fleas you will catch. IT'S THINGS TO WEAR WE ARE HARPING ON—and the way we are selling them shows we are harping right. Come and see us before you start—that's all.

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATES MARRIAGES.

District Attorney Says Collins May Be Prosecuted on Charge of Bigamy.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—The case of George B. Collins, the lawyer who, through his recent marriage to Miss Clarice McCurdy in Chicago, is accused of bigamy by Mrs. Charlotta Newman-Collins of this city, who claims to have married him in 1899, is being considered by the Grand Jury.

After considering the facts presented to him, District Attorney Byington is of the opinion that Collins can be prosecuted here for big. ny; also he asserts that Mrs. Collins No. 1 may give evidence against Collins, whom she claims as husband.

A brother of Mrs. Charlotta Collins, William Newman by name, is a witness against the lawyer. He states that Collins has been in company with his sister since his return from Chicago with a bride.

HURLS QUOTATION

"Out of the depths of infamy cometh foul vaporing to asperse and defame." The quotation forms part of the brief filed by Attorney George D. Collins in the Supreme Court in response to the petition of the Bar Association that he be debarred from the practice of the law by reason of conduct unbecoming a member of an honorable profession. Mr. Collins now hurls the same quotation at those who charge him with a far more serious offense in the contemplation of law, to wit, that of bigamy.

For the Grand Jury is investigating Mr. Collins. It desires to know by what right he went through the ceremony of marriage with Miss Clarice McCurdy in Chicago on April 23, when, according to the records of the church and the County Clerk's office in San Francisco, he has a wife living, from whom he has never been legally separated.

GIVES TESTIMONY

William Newman, brother of Mrs. Charlotta Eugenia Newman-Collins, called upon Foreman Andrews of the Grand Jury yesterday and laid facts before him in support of a request that the Grand Jury indict Collins for bigamy. He stated that on May 15, 1889, the lawyer espoused Miss Charlotta Eugenia Newman, and that there are three children of the union living, the eldest of whom is fifteen years of age. In support of his accusation, Newman produced the marriage license and the application therefor, both containing the signature of George D. Collins in his own handwriting.

HIS OPINION

Foreman Andrews submitted the matter to District Attorney Byington for his opinion. They conferred for several hours last night.

The District Attorney said afterward that he was of the opinion that a charge of bigamy would be made against Collins. He believed also that under a recent amendment to the statutes the first Mrs. Collins would be permitted to testify against the accused.

THE EVIDENCE

Apparently there is plenty of evidence to support the allegation of Charlotta E. Newman that she was married to Collins. Thomas E. Curran, an attorney of San Francisco, says that he was present at the ceremony and acted as best man for his brother attorney. William Newman is another witness, and then there is Mrs. Charlotta Newman-Collins, who, living with her three children, declares positively that she is the lawyer's wife.

That Collins married Miss McCurdy there is no doubt, as this dispatch shows:

CHICAGO WEDDING.

"CHICAGO, May 9.—The Rev. John Archibald Morrison says he married George D. Collins and Clarice McCurdy on April 23 in his study at the First Presbyterian Church in the presence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah A. McCurdy, and her brother, James Hyde McCurdy. He says that the brother is in business in this vicinity and that because he wanted to be present at the ceremony the mother and daughter came here from San Francisco for the wedding."

CERTIFICATES.

The main piece of evidence against Collins in this threatened accusation of bigamy are the certificates. The application for marriage with Charlotta Newman is on file in the office of the County Clerk. It reads as follows:

"State of California, City and County of San Francisco—ss.

"George Daniel Collins, being duly sworn, says: I reside at 1939 Broadway, San Francisco, Cal. I desire a license to authorize my marriage with Charlotta Eugenie Newman. The age of myself is twenty-four years and past. That of Charlotta E. Newman is twenty years and past, and she is a resident of 1211 Octavia street, San Francisco, Cal. There are no legal objections whatever to the marriage nor to the issuance of this license to authorize the same.

"GEORGE D. COLLINS."

The death certificate of Agnes M. Collins, No. 8551, on file, states as follows:

"May 16, 1901. Agnes M Collins, 1236 Page street. Aged thirty years one month. Married. Cause of death, diphtheria and childbirth. Buried in Holy Cross Cemetery. Doctor, N. Rogers."

On the same date there is record of the death of an infant child of George D. and Agnes M. Collins.

ATTORNEY'S STORY.

Says Collins: "That old story of my marriage to one of the Newman girls is being revived, I see. It seems to me like Banquo's ghost, and I suppose it will never be laid until the facts are settled definitely. Well, I'm ready; I invite the combat. I say to my enemies, 'Come on and show what you have to show. Then we'll see who wins.'

"Yesterday morning I sent my clerk down to the bond and warrant clerk's office in the Hall of Justice with a request that he issue a warrant for my arrest on a charge of bigamy. Nothing came of it. I am now awaiting action by the Grand Jury at the instance of my friend, Mr. Tobin, who has a grudge against me. It is the Tobins who are behind this bigamy charge, just as they were behind the proceedings against me in disbarment."

"But about your application for a marriage license, dated May 14, 1889, and signed by you, in which the name of your intended bride is given as Charlotta Eugenia, not Agnes Newman?" was asked.

HE DON'T CARE.

"I don't care a tinker's anathema for the marriage license nor for any other paper," replied Collins. "When the case comes up in court I will prove beyond doubt that it was Agnes Newman, not Charlotta, whom I married in 1889. I have a mass of evidence to show that Agnes was my wife, not she who is now making the claim."

"It is reported you made the explanation to the Bar Association that a clerical error had been made by the clerk of the marriage license and yourself," was suggested.

"I said an error had been made," corrected the lawyer. "That is all I care to say just now. Meantime I invite the combat. I want it. When it comes the things in doubt will be made certain and the uncertainties will be removed. Before you go I should like to call your attention to the opening words of my brief in the Supreme Court in the disbarment proceedings against me. 'Out of the depths of infamy cometh foul vaporing to asperse and defame.'"

THE WRONG DIAGNOSIS.

SHOWER HELPS FIRE FIGHTERS

PLYMOUTH, Mass., May 9.—A brisk shower today greatly cheered the weary fighters who since last Friday have been working night and day and using every possible method in an endeavor to check the flames which have raged through the forests of the towns of Plymouth, Plympton, Kingston and Carver, destroying thousands of dollars' worth of cut and standing timber and endangering many buildings.

The continuous work finally made some impression late last night and today's shower enabled the men to come more nearly to securing control of the fire than at any time since it first gained headway.

DIVORCE CASES

Suit for divorce has been instituted by John Delahanty against Mary C. Delahanty, whom, he states, has deserted him. They were married in 1882 and for more than ten years they have not lived together. There are no children and no community property.

A divorce suit brought by Sydney G. Mitchell against Ellen Mitchell in San Francisco has been transferred to the courts here. Their home is in Alameda and he accuses her of desertion. She, however, filed a cross-complaint in which she states that she still lives at the home, but that he is the one that has absented himself and, she says, neglected her and failed to give her any money.

Annie Rae has brought a suit against Frederick Rae, alleging cruelty. They were married in Cheshire, England, but removed to this country. He has of late been in the habit, she charges, of using abusive language towards her and one day would have killed her if the pistol he had had not been taken away from him by those who interfered.

The Admiral with the long name evidently wishes that he had some such safeguard around him as that which is provided by the safety deposit vaults of the Central Bank. Admiral Togo would inspire no fear for the Russian admiral if Rojestvensky could only feel that he was in a first-class battleship instead of being in command of a line of first-class rattle-traps.

But what Rojestvensky cannot get can be secured by you for the small sum of four dollars per year. For this insignificant amount you can rent an individual safety deposit box with all the security which the magnificent vaults of the Central Bank afford. THE LATEST NEWS OF THE DAY=4:30 P. M.

DEATH ENDS ALL

Shock of Daughter's Arrest Hastens Him to Grave.

The case of Ida Spear, a 15-year-old girl accused of stealing a diamond ring, was continued three days by Police Judge Samuels this morning because of the death of the father of the young girl, G. Spear.

When he learned that his daughter was a self-confessed thief he was greatly grieved.

The shock of the news when brought to him had much to do in hastening his end. He had been ill for some time.

Mrs. W. Baxter of 913 Center street is the complaining witness. The young girl was employed there as a servant.

She readily admitted her guilt to Detectives Eyre and Quigley, who made the arrest.

MATTER BEFORE RAILWAY CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The only phase of the railway rate question which will come before the International Railway Congress is that of "slow freight rates," which topic has just been concluded by section 4, for presentation to the general session of the Congress Thursday. The conclusion reached by the section is that "tariffs should be based on commercial principles taking into account the special conditions which bear on the commercial value of the services rendered.

With the reservation that rates should all be changed without arbitrary discrimination to all shippers alike under like conditions, the making of rates should as far as possible have all the elasticity necessary to permit the development of the traffic and to produce the greatest results to the public, and to the railroads themselves."

On the question of length of time on duty and working regulations for employes and laborers, section 4 has reached the following conclusion for presentation to the general session of the congress:

"That due to the many peculiarities of railway service it is impossible to reconcile the rigidity of the law with the elasticity necessitated by the various requirements by the needs of the public, the employes and employing management. It is held that the employer should have the greatest latitude to fix, under the control of competent authorities, the regulations of work.

SHERIFFS ARE TO HOLD CONVENTION

SAN DIEGO, May 9.—A large number of delegates to the State Supervisorial Convention arrived today. Sheriffs of eleven counties had arrived this morning to attend the Sheriffs' State Convention, and others came at noon. The Sheriffs convened at 2:30 p. m. today, and after transaction of business merged their convention into that of the Supervisors. This evening the body will be welcomed by the Mayor and organization will be effected.

SUIT AGAINST AN OAKLAND MAN

EUREKA, May 9—Suit was brought in the Superior Court today by W. G. Gosslin, formerly of the First National Bank of Eureka, against E. H. Vance of Oakland, owner of the Hotel Vance of this city and other large business interests of Humboldt county, to recover the sum of $12,000 alleged to be due from Vance to Gosslin.

ROOSEVELT ON CANAL

He Will See That Railroad Question Is Handled Right.

STERLING, Colo., May 9.—President Roosevelt, in his speech in Denver last night concluded with the following comment on the Panama Canal project.

"It is perhaps unnecessary for me to say that any of the most admirable gentlemen disagreed with me in my action toward the Panama Canal, but I am in an unrepentant frame of mind. The ethical conception upon which I acted was that I did not intend that Uncle Sam should be held up. But without regard to that, when the canal comes into operation I think it will have a very important regulatory effect in connection with the transcontinental commerce of the railroads. I think when such is the case the great railroads will have to revise their way of looking at the interests of certain inland cities.

GREAT RAILROAD QUESTION

"As I say, gentlemen, dont misunderstand me. I understand thoroughly the argument from their standpoint and see that they can in all sincerity hold the position, and while I do not think that anything I can say could have any effect in making them alter that position, I have considerable hopes for the effect upon the Panama Canal. Let me repeat, I have told you my views as to what I regard to be the most important matter of international legislation that in the immediate future will be before this people.

"I wish to say again that important though that legislation is, it is nothing like as important as the spirit in which we approach it. If we approach it in the spirit of demagoguery; if we permit ourselves as a people to be deluded into the belief that permanent good will come to us as a mass; if we attack unjustly the proper rights of others because they are wealthy, we shall do ourselves just as much damage as if we permitted an attack upon those who are poor because they are poor.

THE CLASSES

"In time past, republic after republic has existed in this world and has gone down to destruction. Sometimes because the republic was turned into a government of the poor who plundered the rich; sometimes because it was turned into a government of the rich who exploited the poor. It made no difference whatever to the fate of the republic which form its fall took. That fall was just as certain in one case as in the other. It was just as certain to follow the election of a class which plundered another class, whether the class thus given mastery was the class of the poor who plundered the rich or the class of the rich who exploited the poor. The destruction was as inevitable in one instance as in the other. We have the right to look forward with confident hope to the future of this republic because it will not and shall not become the republic of any class, either poor or rich; because it will and shall remain as its founders intended it to be and its rescuers under Abraham Lincoln intended it to be—a government where every man, rich or poor, so long as he did his duty to his neighbor, was given his full rights, was guaranteed justice and has had justice exacted from him in return."

ADMIRAL SAILS

NHATRANG, Annam, May 9.—Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron, which has been cruising for several days off Vafang Bay, sailed this morning.

EMPLOYMENT FOR MANY

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 9.—The Carnegie Steel Company has prepared plans for the construction here of five new blast furnaces of 500 tons each daily; fifty open hearth furnaces of 100 tons capacity daily, and will add several plate and structural mills to its Ohio plant. The additions to the plant will require the services of about 2000 additional hands and entail an expenditure of about twenty million dollars.

COLLINS MAY BE INDICTED

District Attorney Says Offense Was Committed Across Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—There is little doubt but that the Grand Jury will indict George D. Collins for bigamy. Foreman Andrews has been advised that the attorney can be prosecuted in this city, and he will act accordingly. District Attorney Bylington's opinion is that it will not be necessary to institute criminal proceedings in Chicago.

Mr. Bylington holds that the offense of bigamy consists not only of the second marriage, but also of the living in bigamous relations with the two women. Proof of the felony implies proof of both marriages. All the records and an abundance of testimony from reputable witnesses go to substantiate the union of the attorney and Miss Charlotta Eugenia Newman on May 15, 1899. Collins has openly avowed his marriage to Miss Clarice McCurdy on April 23 last. The lawyer still clings to the story however, that Agnes Newman, who has been dead four years, was his wife; but his statement is questioned by the Grand Jury in the face of the odds against it.

VISITS OLD HOME.

There will be witnesses to testify that since his return with his bride from Chicago Collins has spent several nights in the house at 2619 Pierce street, where Mrs. Charlotta Newman-Collins and the three Collins children have lived—where, in fact, has been the Collins home for years. Charlotta Newman-Collins' relatives declare he was there last Sunday night and was seen leaving the residence Monday morning. And the bride, who was Miss McCurdy, remained at the Palace Hotel with her mother, Mrs. S. A. McCurdy. What excuses Collins made at the hotel for the nights he passed at the Pierce-street home, or what explanations he offered at the residence for the nights he spent at the hotel will be told to the Grand Jury in a few days. There seems no lack of testimony in prospect to support the charge that the attorney has recognized both women as his wife since his return from Chicago.

GRAND JURY WILL INDICT.

If the Grand Jury can establish these relations beyond a reasonable doubt it will indict. It will not have to go after evidence; witnesses will volunteer. To prove that Collins married Charlotta Newman, not Agnes Newman, there are the marriage certificate, the application for a marriage license, the birth register and the testimony of the wife, her brother and sister, Thomas E. Curran, "best man" at the wedding, and many friends and acquaintances of the Newman and Collins families.

That Collins will have to be shrewder than ever before and resort to his best technicalities to extricate himself from the position in which his marriage to Miss McCurdy has placed him is evidenced by the statement of Foreman Andrews of the Grand Jury.

CHANGE IN STATUTE.

"I have been advised that Collins can be prosecuted here," he said this morning. "I have consulted with the District Attorney and have reached the conclusion that if Collins is guilty of bigamy the offense was committed in this city, and the evidence warranting it, we can indict him."

MANY WITNESS DOUBLE HANGING

BELLEFONT, Pa., May 9.—Ira Green and William Dillon were hanged here today for the murder of Jerry Condo, a turnkey in the Center county jail. One thousand persons witnessed the execution.

STUDENTS DISMISSED

BERKELEY, May 9.—Harold Petterson, a senior at the University, was in Justice Edgar's court this morning to answer to a charge of disturbing the peace. He was arrested by the University police last Saturday during the field day on the campus. In company of R. W. Parker he attempted to rule the field day event from the baseball bleachers and when ordered to move by the University police, refused to go. Other students joined him and a riot resulted. Petterson and Parker were taken to the Marshal's office where each put up $10 bail. Their cases were set for hearing this morning. Today Justice Edgar dismissed the young men, there being no formal complaint filed against them.

ASSAULT ALLEGED.

Mrs. Kate Phelan of 761 Washington street, this morning swore to a complaint charging Frank Mayer, a stevedore with a felonious assault on her 5-year old daughter, Nora. The assault is alleged to have taken place on May 7.

Mayer is a married man. The child whom he is alleged to have assaulted is scarcely five years of age. Dr. L. L. Rigen who treated the little girl states in his opinion that an assault was committed. Mayer denies the charge.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Acting Secretary of State Loomis is in receipt of a telegram from Governor Stokes at Trenton stating that so far no application for a reprieve in the case of Anna Valentina, under sentence of death for the murder of Rosa Silva, has been made to him; that it appears that the courts are still open to her, but if that should not be so he will give weighty consideration to the application to the State Department based on a request of the Italian Ambassador that the execution of sentence be postponed.

The Governor stated further that his power to grant a reprieve was for a limited time only.

F. P. Stevens, convicted of malicious mischief in Police Judge Smith's Court, on the complaint of Evelyn Fraga, had judgment suspended on him this morning. He was accused of having wrung the necks of two pet chickens belonging to Miss Fraga.

ELDER IS DEPOSED

Sensational Scenes at a Church in Elmhurst.

At a meeting of the Presbytery at Elmhurst last night the charges against G. F. Rankin and Miss A. M. Rines were found to be untrue. They were acquitted by the investigating committee.

Elder F. McDermid was found guilty of the charge of slander and was deposed as an elder of the church.

During the investigation Mrs. Rankin picked up a chair and tried to assault McDermid.

The complaining elder was also denied communion in the church. He made charges that Miss Rines and Rankin were too frequently in each other's company at night.

ESCAPES A TRIAL

Earl Roy Bodine, a religious convert, who confessed to having killed a tramp in Fairfield, Maine, was released this morning by Chief of Police Hodgkins, who received a letter from the scene of the alleged crime, stating that it would be impossible to convict Bodine. There is no evidence against him except his own confession which could not be used against him.

From the first Bodine was thought to be a fakir. While he told a straight story he was pronounced by several persons who came in contact with him and who knew him before to be a tramp with tendencies to religious faking. He secured money from charitably inclined persons under the guise that he had been converted and was a deserving case.

In a letter to the Chief of Police H. T. Powers, district attorney at Fairfield, states that he has verified all the records in the case and does not see anything whereby he could connect Bodine with any crime.

The young man has been in jail since March 20. He boastfully stated after his arrest that the authorities could do nothing with him. He was evidently familiar with the law that a person cannot be hung on his own confession unless supported by corroborative evidence.

REBELS CAPTURE MANY RIFLES

HODEIDA, Yemen Province, Turkish Arabia, May 9.—The spoils captured by the rebels at Sanaa included thirty guns, 20,000 rifles and much ammunition. The garrison and the Turkish officials were permitted to leave the city.

Riza Pasha, commander of the Turkish troops in Yemen, has been superseded by Marshal Ahmed Fezi Pasha, who has been reinforced by eight battalions of Albanians.

Sanaa, the capital city of Yemen province, capitulated during the night of April 20. The rebels then proceeded to besiege Menakha. The latter has a garrison of 5000 men, but the troops are said to be mutinous.

MUST SHOW CAUSE

NEW YORK, May 9.—Judge Lacome, in the United States Circuit Court, today granted an order to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for the United Shoe Machinery Company of New Jersey. The order, which is returnable on Friday, was granted on application of Robert C. Beatty, receiver of the United Shoe Machinery Company of Maine. Judge Thomas, in the United States Circuit Court, Brooklyn, granted an injunction today, forbidding the collection by the United Shoe Machinery Company of any royalties from those using machines and patents in Brooklyn. The bill in equity on which the injunction was granted alleges that the United Shoe Machinery Company of New Jersey is insolvent and is about to transfer its assets to a new corporation.

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT.

Arthur Kessler was arrested last night on the complaint of B. F. Jenkins in East Oakland on a charge of making an assault with a deadly weapon. Kessler states that he only threatened to cut Jenkins with a knife but did not exhibit the weapon. Kessler is a butcher in the employ of Fred Becker, the meat merchant.

MAKES ONE-MINUTE SPEECH

STERLING, Colo., May 9.—The first stop made by the Presidential special today was at Fort Morgan, Colo. The President made a one-minute speech from the rear end, in which he predicted increased prosperity for the State.

FAVORS WOMAN.

TRENTON, N. J., May 9.—Judge Lanning, in the United States District Court today, granted a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Anna Valentina. This will stay her execution, which was to have taken place in Hackensak on May 12.

EXPLAINS ACTION

Late Secretary for Ireland Tells House Why He Resigned.

LONDON, May 9.—George Wyndham, who has been absent owing to illness since his resignation of the Chief Secretaryship for Ireland, returned to the House of Commons this afternoon, and as a preliminary to the introduction of the vote of censure of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman (the Liberal leader) on the Irish policy of the Government, made a personal explanation of the reasons of his resignation.

He said he had insisted on retiring from the Cabinet not on grounds of policy, but because political and personal reasons had convinced him that he could better serve the Government as an unofficial member than as Secretary for Ireland.

His views had not changed in the smallest degree in relation to the Irish administration. The union must be the fundamental principle of any sound Irish policy. Mr. Wyndham thought the scheme for devolution was in some ways more open to criticisms than even the plan of home rule itself. The situation in both Ireland and England had become complicated by a personal misunderstanding, for which he himself was partly to blame.

He had never contemplated any delegation of legislative powers from the House of Commons other than the power of dealing with purely private bills. Consequently he had paid no attention, as he ought to have done, to the earlier proceedings of the Reform Association.

Sir Anthony McDonnell, Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, erroneously believed that he, Mr. Wyndham, could approve of the proposals of the revolutionists, but as soon as he saw these proposals, he (Mr. Wyndham) registered strong objections to them.

Such a misconception of his attitude was instructive in the case of all efforts at social reform. Therefore he had concluded that his power for doing further useful work in Ireland was ended.

VOTE OF CENSURE.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman then moved his resolution, which amounted to a vote of censure for the policy proceedings of the Irish Government connected with and subsequent to the appointment of Sir Anthony McDonnell.

Sir Henry said the Government had attempted a policy of impartial Irish administration on the lines of the Wyndham-McDonnell letters, but had fled from it at the dictates of a small party of Irish Unionists.

After a lengthy criticism of the Government's policy, Sir Henry concluded with remarking that as to the future Irish policy mutterings of coercion were heard. If that proved to be the case Englishmen would learn that the real separationists were the Unionists, who first cajoled Ireland and then abandoned her.

WILL TRANSFER MONEY

COUNCIL COMES TO THE ASSISTANCE OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The finance committee of the City Council, Mayor Mott and the finance committee of the Board of Education last night held a conference in Mayor Mott's office relative to a deficit of $4,000 in the High School fund of this city.

The Councilmen present, after hearing a statement of the needs of the educators, stated they would vote to transfer $2500 to the High School fund so that the schools might be kept open until June, which is the end of the school year. This leaves a deficit of $1500, but the educators believe that by economy that the sum can be saved. The meeting was held at the suggestion of Mayor Mott.

The deficiency comes about through an error in computation. Two years ago the State Board of Equalization raised the assessment of Alameda county twenty per cent. This year there was practically a decrease instead of an increase and as a result there was a deficit.

CONVENTION OF STOCKMEN

DENVER, Colo., May 9.—The American Stockgrowers' Association, which was organized last January by seceders from the National Livestock Association, is holding its first annual convention in this city. Several hundred cattlemen were present at the opening session in the Broadway Theater today, at which addresses of welcome were made by Governor Jesse McDonald, Mayor Robert W. Speer of Denver, and John W. Springer, former president of the National Stock Association, and a response by W. W. Turney, president of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association.

STOLE UNION MONEY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—The poolrooms are charged with responsibility for the downfall of E. F. Allender, treasurer of Electrical Workers' Union, local No. 6, who has absconded with $1518.30 belonging to the organization. He has been missing since the 28th of April, and the police are now on his trail.

COUPLE SEPARATE

But Still Live Close Enough to Quarrel if Necessary.

NEWARK, May 9.—From their back yards Jose R. Nunes and Mary Nunes may now fight out their marital troubles, and while living separate are close enough to still have a fling at each other if the spirit requires.

Their troubles have long been the talk of the neighborhood but an agreement has been finally reached and they have divided their property and their money and are to live separately.

They own two houses and two lots adjoining and while he occupies one she is to occupy the other. They have $900 in cash and they have each taken $450 and called all things off.

Before her marriage Mrs. Nunes was Mary Francis and when she married Nunes the event was celebrated by a large number of friends and relatives of the pair. He, however, was inclined to stand long at the bar and spent less and less of his time at his home. He owns the saloon here and it is claimed by Mrs. Nunes that he came home many night in a state when a gentleman is not a gentleman and made life miserable for her.

Finally some little time ago she left and went to San Francisco with an idea of taking care of herself, but she found this a difficult matter and returned.

The old life was taken up but Nunes still made things uncomfortable, the wife alleged and finally they agreed to divide their property and live separate.

She will still be able to hear her liege lord as he comes to his bed at night and by the footfalls consider how well he is able to handle himself, without having anything to say, and he can return to his home at night knowing that there will be no one to find fault, while he knows that his wife is only next door and might even call to her if he wishes.

LAST LECTURE

This season's closing lecture of the University extension course will be delivered by Professor H. Morse Stephens at 3:50 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday, May 10, in Chabot Hall. His subject will be "Barras, the Director," and will treat also of the time and some of the achievements of Napoleon Bonaparte, whose military ability was first perceived by Barras. This period of the French revolution will be particularly interesting to students and admirers of the "Little Colonel."

The extension center has 253 members and is now on a sound financial basis. At tomorrow's meeting the lecture committee will announce the outlook for next season's course.

50c—Special This Week—50c

To the Public.

I fully appreciate that in this day of deception and sensational advertising one is bewildered and perplexed whom or what to believe, as there are more false and misleading statements chaperoned through the columns of the daily press than the most hypocritical tongue could utter in a lifetime, until you cannot be blamed for doubting almost everything you read.

Therefore, it is with the object of convincing you of my claims that I have decided to invite you most cordially to call and be satisfied for yourself, for I realize a personal interview will do more to advertise me than columns of self-praise. And if I fail to give your name in full then you will be under no obligations to have a reading, and this will only cost you street car fare and a little of your time. Do you not feel it a duty to yourself as well as to me to accept this invitation in order that I may convince you first of my claims and ability? What could be fairer?

I do hereby solemnly agree and guarantee to make you no charge if I fail to call you by name in full, names of your friends, enemies or rivals. I promise to tell you whether your husband, wife or sweetheart is true or false, tell you how to gain the love of the one you most desire, even though miles away; how to succeed in business, speculation, lawsuits; how to marry the one of your choice; how to regain youth, health and vitality; removes evil influences; cures drink habit; locates treasures.

There might be a question of importance that the correct advice would save a life-long repentance. Call on Prof. Mayo; he will assist you.

How can I have good luck?
How can I succeed in business?
How can I make my home happy?
How can I marry the one I choose?
How can I marry well?
How soon can I marry?
How can I make any one love me?
How soon will my lover propose?
How soon can I get a letter?
How can I get a good position?
How can I remove bad influences?
How can I control any one?
How make distant ones think of me?
How can I hold my husband's love?
How can I keep my wife's love?

FIRST ARREST

Jeweler Arrested Will Test Validity of Optometry Law.

Bert Lissner, a Washington street jeweler, was arrested today on a charge of practicing optometry without a license.

This is the first arrest under the law which was passed by the State Legislature in 1903.

The arrest is due to the effort of the State Board of Opticians to enforce the law, which compels all opticians to take an examination and procure a license before practicing.

Lissner stated today that he would beat the case. He said that in his opinion the law was illegal and that he had only sold a pair of spectacles, which he did not consider a crime.

CUVELLIER PLANNED THE TIME OF SUICIDE.

Shot Himself at the Same Time His Father Suicided Many Years Ago.

The funeral of the late ex-Councilman B. C. Cuvellier, who suicided yesterday, will be private. It will be attended solely by the members of the family of the deceased.

That the tragic ending of the ex-Councilman was premeditated there is now no longer any doubt. Circumstances have come to light which show that the deceased long contemplated self-destruction and many of his relatives marvel now it was that he was prevented for several months from carrying into effect his oft-made threat of bringing his troubled and painful life to a close.

Despite the prompting to self-destruction which, for months, has been ever-present, it has been patent to friends who were acquainted with and a close observer of the man that there was something of restraint upon him.

This morning it was ascertained that that restraint was occasioned by a desire on his part to await the arrival of a moment when he might carry out his purpose so as to make his act, in as many respects as possible, coincident with the tragic ending of his father, who also died by his own hand.

Yesterday was the day in which the coincident character of the deed would be strongest, because it was the anniversary of the ex-Councilman's father's suicide many years ago in New Orleans. Not only that, but the moment at which, so far as known, Cuvellier pulled the trigger which sent the bullet into his mouth and deprived him of his life was the very moment at which his father had caused a bullet to speed into his mouth, which also deprived the elder Cuvellier of his troubled career.

But this is not all. The two suicides took place on the same day of the week, although the days were separated by years, and Cuvellier, the son, at the time of his demise, was of exactly the same age as was Cuvellier the elder when he, too, made his exit from this world.

People have slain themselves on the anniversary of the suicide of some relative and even upon the grave of a loved one upon the anniversary of that loved one's translation into another sphere, but in the local annals of the Coroner's office there is not a case which shows such coincidence with a violent act of an earlier period as that of ex-Councilman Cuvellier.

Improving the Ferry Service.

It is gratifying to learn that the Southern Pacific proposes to give the district on this side of the bay an improved and increased ferry and local railway service in the near future. While the new schedule just announced does not quite accord with the request of the Merchants' Exchange for an all-night service, it is a long step toward it, which testifies that the Merchants' Exchange has not labored in vain.

In many ways the proposed schedule adds to the public convenience. It extends the night service from 12:25 a. m. to 1:20 a. m., while the day service will begin at 5:30 a. m. instead of 6, as heretofore. During the day boats will run every twenty minutes on both ferries, and at night trips will be made every forty minutes, giving a ten-minute service during the day and a twenty minute service during the night. This arrangement will obviate the exasperating waits for trains, and in many other ways will make trans-bay travel more expeditious and convenient.

The announcement of this improved service is proof that the Southern Pacific is alive to the growing importance of the communities on the Alameda shore, and proposes to enlarge its facilities to correspond with the growth in population and the development of general business.

Oakland is going ahead by leaps and bounds, and no common carrier engaged in local passenger transportation can afford to neglect a field so inviting and so full of future possibilities. Hence we see the ferry companies vieing with each other in extending rapid transit facilities. Perhaps, too, some of their diligence is due to the projected advent of the Western Pacific, which will pierce the city from East to West, skirting the harbor front all the way. Its terminal station at the head of the jetties will enable it to establish a ferry and compete for local traffic in case that is deemed desirable. Although it is announced that the Western Pacific does not contemplate instituting a local service at present, it must of necessity run a ferry boat at intervals to accommodate the travel on its trains, and this boat will naturally afford additional accommodations for the local traveling public.

At any rate the people of Oakland and vicinity are to be congratulated on the outlook. It may be truthfully added that the favorable attention we are receiving from the transportation interests is largely due to exertions of the Board of Trade and the Merchants' Exchange. Both these bodies have labored diligently and effectively to build up the community and enlist capital in the business development of this section, and are entitled to the hearty thanks and support of the community.

The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of Schiller's death has one good result at least. It has caused a good many persons to read up about the great master of German literature, and not a few English-speaking people to actually read his works. Of course, we have been treated to a lot of pretentious talk about Goethe and Schiller anent the celebration, but even the people who cram themselves to create the impression that they have communed for years with the twin literary geniuses of the Teutonic race cannot have failed to learn something. They may have read only to make a vain show, but they have nevertheless supped at a sacred fountain, which they would have forever passed by if vanity and the egotism of pretense had not led them to learn something which they might display to others.

Coal Baron Baer says the public lacks common sense. That is why it is so easily bamboozled and robbed. Baer and his associates should not complain of the public's weakness.

A Too Narrow Program.

The Contra Costa Improvement Association is making an energetic effort to get the University farm located in the Walnut Creek region, a most favorable and attractive one by the way. This effort is commendable, but it seems to be misdirected in one particular. It is proposed to center all effort on one suggested site. Now the members of the Improvement Association are not to be the judges as to what constitutes the most available site for a farm to be devoted to experimental agriculture in connection with scholastic training. There is a committee created by law to make the selection, and this committee will no doubt be largely guided by the suggestions of Professor Hilgard, head of the Agricultural Department of the University, and his subordinates.

Under the circumstances, the best thing for the Contra Costa people to do is to show the committee all the goods they have to offer, and allow the committee to canvass the merits of different tracts. It is not wise to restrict the selection to Hobson's choice.

In giving this advice THE TRIBUNE is not to be construed as advocating the Walnut Creek section, or any other section for that matter, as the most fitting location for the University farm. So far as we are able to judge the Walnut Creek section is admirably adapted to furnish the site of the proposed farm, but there are other equally good localities in this vicinity. For instance, it would be hard to find a better location than the region surrounding Haywards and Niles, where available sites can easily be obtained, with rapid transit facilities already in operation.

This paper has studiously refrained from becoming the champion of any particular locality, having from the first consistently held to the theory that the farm should be located as near to the University as conditions will permit, leaving the gentlemen having the matter in charge to make the selection in accordance with their ideas and the requirements of the law and the University. Our Contra Costa neighbors have our best wishes, though not to the prejudice of the Haywards section.

Is Discipline Lax at Berkeley?

The authorities at Berkeley can best judge for themselves whether the criticism indulged in by the Sacramento Bee is justified. As a whole we do not believe it is justified, though it certainly is in part. There is enough ground for the strictures, however, to admonish both the faculty and the student body of the University of the necessity of paying closer heed to public opinion. It is not wise to permit a feeling hostile to the University to generate and grow up in different parts of the State. Berkeley is a State institution dependent for support on the taxpayers at large, and hence is an object of jealous, sometimes suspicious, observation. It is always much more in the limelight than privately endowed institutions like Stanford, and is also under closer view of the San Francisco press. Therefore whatever occurs there to give food for gossip is widely circulated and made the subject of critical comment. Says the Bee:

"Discipline is lax at the State University. The students appear to have little fear of the governing body, and do with impunity many things which reflect unfavorably upon the institution. Recently it was charged that a large number of them had committed the crime of illegal voting in a Berkeley election, but save for an investigation begun by a student organization nothing seems to have been done about it at the University.

"The story is published that one night last week a number of student lodgers in a Berkeley house whose furniture had been removed by Deputy Sheriffs, unreeled the fire hose and drenchd the walls and floors, until a lodger turned in a riot alarm and called out the police. But there were no arrests.

"Now comes the Berkeley Californian, the student paper, with the following declaration:

"'Cribbing is one of the most widespread evils in the University, and one that must be cured at all costs. Last week the Recorder made public announcement that a student had been expelled for dishonesty in examinations. This is too vague a statement to strike home. Such cases should be referred to the new Undergraduate Students' Affairs Committee, and the names of the offenders made public.'

"Is it not singular that a student publication should have to call the attention of the faculty to the widespread extent of an evil destructive of all that is admirable in University life, and even to ask for the adoption and enforcement of adequate punishment?

"The prevailing laxity at Berkeley is not kindness but weakness. It is a direct injury to the institution and its students. Harmless pranks and frolics may be excused or overlooked, but downright dishonesty or fraud should be severely punished. It is better publicly to disgrace one offender than to allow the honor of the student body to be lowered."

A KICK FROM CALAVERAS

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE has been voicing the almost universal feeling that exists in this State against the policy of the Postoffice Department in relation to the spelling of names of postoffices. This system was inaugurated under Postmaster General Vilas and this county has suffered such euphonious changes as Sheepranch, Gwinmine, Northbranch, etc. The practice has been continued since, and some of the changes made are simply fearful in their violation of all rules of derivation or euphony.—Calaveras Prospect.

THE TIME WILL COME

When the Advice of This Oakland Resident Will Help You.

Very few people are entirely free from backache. It does not take much to derange the kidneys. A little cold, a strain, stooping positions or hard work, overtaxes those delicate organs, and many aches and pains promptly follow. An Oakland citizen tells you here how every kidney ill can be relieved and cured. Read about it:

Walter J Plumber, of 1328 Versailles avenue, Alameda, peweler, in employ of Geo R. Moss & Co., says "If the contraction of a cold which settled across the small of my back was not the primary cause of the aching in that part of my anatomy I knew positively that when I caught a cold aggravation of the trouble was apparent. I have persistently and conscientiously tried medicines when these attacks were at their height but I met with very indifferent success. From reading an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills in a newspaper I was indeed induced to go to a drug store for a box. Relief followed the treatment in a few days and since I stopped using the pills there has not been a sign of a recurrence."

GOOD WORK OF RED CROSS SOCIETY

The Oakland Red Cross Society held a meeting at which it was reported that proceedings in the Merchant will case had been finally concluded.

Mrs. Theresa L Merchant, upon her death in 1898, left the residue of her estate to the Oakland Red Cross Society, to use for the benefit of sick and needy soldiers.

Because of some litigation this bequest has been in the hands of the trustees appointed by Mrs Merchant to carry out the provisions of her will until now, when all has been satisfactorily settled, and a bed has been purchased in Fabiola Hospital for sick soldiers.

Mrs. Merchant was perfectly familiar with the methods of this institution and was in perfect accord with them. During her life it was her wish to do something of permanent benefit for the sick soldier, who specially appealed to her, and she purchased a building on Piedmont avenue to be used as a home for convalescent soldiers.

She wished the Red Cross Society to take this property and use it for its work, but owing to a technical difficulty they could not accept the generous offer. Mrs. Merchant presented the house to Fabiola Hospital and it was converted into a nurses' home.

The money, over $3000, which Mrs. Merchant left for the sick and needy soldier, goes into the endowment fund of Fabiola, and there will always be a bed and a welcome for the sick soldier whenever he comes, so that her desire to give permanent and lasting help will be carried out after all.

Arrangements are being made for a room in the hospital to be known as the Red Cross room. Twenty dollars a year is needed for its maintenance, but the ladies of the Red Cross Society anticipate no difficulty in raising that sum, and then the soldier will be made doubly comfortable.

The Oakland Red Cross Society feels that it did a great work during the days of the Spanish war, and regards this last act as a most fitting sequel to the many deeds of kindness it was enabled to do through the generosity of the citizens of Oakland.

THE DELINEATOR FOR JUNE.

A striking cover, in the form of a girl's head in pastel by George Gibbs, introduces the reader of the June Delineator to a varied and interesting table of contents, supplemented by a complete summary of the season's styles and the latest news from the world of fashion. In the literary portion of the magazine, Weymer Jay Mills contributes the first of a series of "Romances of Summer Resorts," which promise much of interest, pictorially and otherwise. A noteworthy feature also is F. Berkeley Smith's description of "A Corner in Normandy," an enjoyable travel sketch that gives more than a passing glance at one of the most curious nooks in the Old World. For the benefit of those who have the collecting instinct, N. Hudson Moore writes on old glass, in "The Collector's Manual," and Dr. Murray discusses the care of the eyes and ears in a paper that will appeal particularly to young mothers and those who have the care of children. Newman's hymn, "Lead Kindly Light," is the subject of a paper by Allan Sutherland in the series "Famous Hymns of the World." In the matter of fiction, Albert Bigelow Paine's serial, "The Lucky-Piece," proceeds along pleasing lines, and Helen Choate Prince contributes a short story of great strength and charm. Grace MacGowan Cooke adds a chapter in the amusing history of Son Riley Rabbit, and L. Frank Baum gives an animal fairy tale, called "The Pea-Green Poodle," both of which will not fail to delight the little folks. In addition, there are house plans and house-furnishing ideas, and many pages devoted to the particular interests of the home, including, among other features, a paper on "The Practical Side of the Wedding," and a variety of suggestions for kitchen economy.

WANTS NEW TREATY.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Consul-General Mason, reporting to the State Department upon the disastrous effect upon trade with Germany involved by the new German tariff law which is to go into effect next March, urges "the preparation of a new and carefully drawn treaty of amity which promotes a normal and increased reciprocal trade while conserving and protecting the interests of both nations." Mr. Mason says that in his opinion Germany is sharply divided on the question whether the most favored nation clause of the German-American treaty will be allowed to continue after the new commercial treaties become effective. The commercial and industrial classes generally, he says, are opposed to as drastic policy which might lead to reprisals and increase of cost of bread.

The State Department is daily receiving protests from large American business houses against the new German tariff rates, which they claim will destroy their German export trade.

Where Happiness Is Found.

Don't look for true happiness in the mansions of the very rich, where high-priced physicians are called in to doctor every ailment. But seek it and find it too, in the comfortable homes of the middle-classes and so called poor, where Green's August Flower is always used to keep the family healthy—to cure all stomach troubles, whether indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, loss of appetite, bilious attacks or torpid liver. Trial bottle August Flower, 25c. Big bottle, 75c. At all druggists.

GERMANIZE CLERGY.

ROME, May 9.—According to instructions from the Vatican, the Archbishop of Metz has given in to the desire of the German Government that the seminarists should frequent the theological faculty of Strassburg with the object of gradually Germanizing the Alsatian clergy. This move is considered particularly important at the present moment and in view of the struggle between France and the Vatican. It is known that Emperor William who is soon to go to Alsace will be received cordially by the Archbishop of Metz who but for the new turn of affairs would have ignored his presence.

MISS ROSE PASTOR FAVORS WORKING GIRLS' CLUBS.

She Attributes Her Own Success in Life to Their Good Influence—Tells Why They Should Be Formed.

CLEVELAND, May 9.—Miss Rose Harriett Pastor, the fiancee of J. G. Phelps Stokes of New York, is a strong advocate of working girls' clubs. In all of her speeches to her former shopmates whom she has met since her visit to this city she has advocated their organization and their hearty support.

Miss Pastor today said: "I dislike exceedingly to talk for publication, but this is a subject in which I am deeply interested. Mr. Stokes agrees with me that in the friendly clubs organized by the working girls lies the most potent influence toward the betterment of their condition. This is not a theory. My own experience has removed all doubt in my own mind. My New York life has not discovered one way of lifting hard-working girls out of their dull, wretched surroundings in a practical manner. I attribute my own success to the friendly clubs' influence, of which I was a member while working in the cigar factories of this city.

"The little literary effort we girls made at that time was sufficient to arouse my thinking powers and opened up avenues of thought, really awakening my ambition. If this was true in my case, why should it not be true in every girl's case with the same surroundings? Stop and think how these girls are forced to live. Their poor homes, often hungry, and with only the cheap amusements within their power occasionally. I refer to the dances and cheap theatrical performances. What is there in pleasure of this sort that will stir the young girl into improving herself and teach her what there is in life worth living for? Nothing. In a friendly club, made up of shopmates, the girls may gather once a week, and each brings in her small quota to a social supper. This little spread will take all the stiffness out of the gathering. The very influence of this companionship is beneficial. Then come the little speeches or the reading of papers on subjects which are interesting to these girls.

"I remember how I enjoyed preparing my papers when I met with the girls. It was a real delight to write something for some one else to hear, for some one else to comment on. It was my first incentive to write and think. Then, too, at these gatherings there is an opportunity for some one to address the girls on topics which will show them how to manage their own affairs, how to provide for themselves and tell them what they really need. There is the trouble. These girls keep within the four walls of their shop, and going from the shop to their poor homes, just as their mothers before them did, how are they to know what they need? In conversation with their mates they broaden. What is told them is discussed among themselves, and they understand it. These are the reasons why I place so much faith in the usefulnes of the working girls clubs."

SOCIETY'S REALM

CALENDAR FULL OF SMALL AFFAIRS

ENGAGED GIRLS THE MOTIF FOR M ANY INFORMAL AFFAIRS.

PLEASANT AFFAIR

Last Friday evening Miss Marguerite Johnson entertained a number of young friends at a party given at her home on Eighth street.

Those present were the Misses Marguerite Johnson, Bessie Sankey, Charlotte Thomas, Edna Yates, Hazel Wills, Pauline Syther, Susie De Marrs, and Miss Finn; Messrs. Lee Wade, Harold Bolster, Earl McCutchen, Frank Syther, Frank McCutcheon, Roy Angwin, Herbert Kincaid and Mr. Fox.

QUIET WEDDING

A quiet wedding took place Sunday, May 7, when Mrs. Katherine M. Kurth and Archie L. Ingraham were married at the Kurth home on Chestnut street. Only relatives and close friends of the contracting parties attended the ceremony, which was followed by a wedding breakfast. Rev. Dr. Morley, assistant pastor of the First Congregational Church, officiated.

The parlors were decorated with ferns and roses and the marriage service was read under a floral bower. The bride wore a handsome gown of blue organdie embroidered with pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham will make their home in this city.

INFORMAL DINNER

The Home Club is arranging the details of a dinner to be given next Friday evening, the guests to include Mayor Mott, the members of the City Council, the Superintendent of Streets and the members of the Board of Education.

The dinner will be entirely informal, since the club members wish to become acquainted with the city officials and hope to acquire a definite plan to help the important work of beautifying the city and advancing its interests. The members of the Home Club are anxious to assist in the good work done by other Oakland clubs for the city.

VISITING HERE

George Morris, assistant librarian of Congress from Lincoln to Cleveland, is in this city for a few days. Mr. Morris is a grandson of the Senator from the State of Ohio who appointed General Grant a cadet at West Point.

Mrs. Samuel Johnson of Honolulu has been visiting relatives and friends in Oakland and Berkeley during the past two weeks. Several parties and receptions have been given in her honor.

She leaves on Tuesday for Sebastapol, where she will visit friends for a few days, after which she will return to San Francisco to spend the summer. Captain Johnson of Company F, the crack company of the First Regiment of the National Guard of Hawaii, will join her here in August. Mr. Johnson will have charge of a team which will represent Hawaii at the National Guard sharpshooting contest at Seagirt, N. J.

Captain Johnson has an important Government position at Honolulu. He is a Russian by birth. He had the honor of being the first military officer Prince Fushimi met on his recent visit to America, having command of the military escort that awaited the Prince on his arrival from Japan on his way to Washington.

HAS RETURNED

Leslie B. Snyder, manager of the Oakland Carriage and Implement Company, has just returned from a two weeks' outing at Grass Valley.

WILL ENTERTAIN

Mrs. William Lynham Shiels will entertain Wednesday evening at a dinner planned for Miss Ella Sterrett and Edwin Barbour and Miss Cordelia Bishop and Dr. Harry Alderson. A dozen guests are bidden to the delightful affair.

On Thursday Mrs. Shiels entertains at an informal luncheon and on Monday, May 22, this charming hostess has planned an elaborate luncheon for Miss Florence White.

MONDAY CLUBS

Miss Marion Everson was hostess yesterday at a meeting of the members of the Monday Five Hundred Club, and an enjoyable hour was spent over the cards.

Mrs. Wickham Havens also entertained one of the Monday clubs yesterday at luncheon, followed by five hundred.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY

Miss Jean Downey has sent out invitations for one of the elaborate card parties of the season to be given May 19 at her Berkeley home. The honored guests will be Miss Ethel Whitney, who returns from the East Friday morning with Miss Lillian Downey, Miss Helen Chase and the Misses Meyer of Menlo Park.

The guest list includes about seventy members of the younger set.

OAKLAND CLUB

are anticipating a delightful reunion

The members of the Oakland Club tomorrow, when Mrs. Sarah J. Watkins will give her talk on "Health and Beauty as gained by Right Thinking." There will also be Hawaiian music provided by Mrs. Martha Brigman and her sisters, the Misses Nott.

Mrs. W. S. Palmer will be chairman of a delightful evening soon at the club, and a fine program is being prepared.

KITCHEN SHOWER

Mrs. Gilbert L. Curtiss is planning one of the delightful events of the week, a kitchen shower, to be given Friday afternoon at her East Oakland home in honor of Miss Ada Laymance.

The hours are from 2 until 5 and about 75 of the younger set are included in the guest list.

LARGE RECEPTION

Mrs. Raymond Arthur Perry will entertain next Tuesday, May 16, at a large reception planned for Mrs. Kate Greenleaf Locke of Pasadena, who is visiting here.

The hours are from 3 until 5 at Mrs. Perry's home on Tenth street, and 150 are included in the guest list.

The hostess will be assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. F. A. Webster, Mrs. J. Torrey Connor, Mrs. C. F. Cobbledick and Mrs. H. G. Plummer.

AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Charles Houghton entertained one of the Monday afternoon clubs yesterday at a delightful game of bridge. The players included Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. James G. Allen, Mrs. Horry Meek, Mrs. Robert S. Knight, Mrs. M. W. Kales, Mrs. Arthur Crellin, Mrs. John L. Howard, Mrs. Charles Bliss, Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts and Mrs. Andrew Mosely, Mrs. Egbert Stone, Mrs. Charles Minor Goodall, Mrs. Harry Adams, Mrs. J. R. Burnham, Miss Harriet Hall, Mrs. F. M. Hathaway, Mrs. Albert M. Sutton, Mrs. Frank Brigham, and Mrs. Hayward G. Thomas.

GUEST OF HONOR

Miss Ada Kenna will be the motif for a pleasant card party planned by Miss Flora McDermott for May 18. Miss Kenna has a host of friends and the announcement of her engagement to Murray Orrick will be the signal for several pleasant affairs in her honor.

CLASS REUNION

The young women of the class of '01, University of California, enjoyed a luncheon and reunion last Saturday at Swain's, in San Francisco. The class has organized and the event proved to be the first in a series planned for coming years.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Elizabeth E. Ledgett; vice-presidents, Ruby R. Morse, Edna T. Owen and Eva Powell; secretary, Elizabeth Scupham, and treasurer, Anna F. White. The members of the class present were: Misses Agnes Frisius, Elizabeth Arlett, Sara Cooper, Brownie Brownell, Maude Powell, Elizabeth Ledgett, Eva Powell, Elizabeth Scupham, Anna White, Rena Cullen, Adrienne Cerf, Catherine Hirstel, May Wollner, Alice Wright, Alice Hunt, Vincenza Milledge, Florence Preble, Ida Moodey, Mary Gallagher, Louise Whitehead, Evangeline Sale, Mrs. Katherine Layne, Mitchell and Mrs. Clara Piper Dillon.

PERSONALS

Miss Lucile Dunham was a recent visitor in Santa Cruz.

Mrs. J. Geisinger of this city is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howland of Santa Cruz.

Miss Isabelle Summers of this city was guest of honor at a recent card party in Fresno given by Mrs. J. M. Summers and Mrs. G. P. Gunter.

Mrs. H. A. Buteau is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Lundy of Stockton.

Frank M. Gilchrist is a visitor in Fresno.

Rev. E. R. Dille was the guest recently of Major and Mrs. Frank S. Rice of Bakersfield.

Queen to Tour World in an Automobile

ROME, May 9.—Queen Margherita of Italy has surprised her friends by announcing her intention of making a trip around the world in her automobile.

She is an expert chauffeur, and spends many hours every day in her car. She will prepare for her long tour by a trip through Spain, where she will visit all the principal cities, and she will remain for some time at Madrid.

As soon as the war between Russia and Japan is over she will start East, and will spend several months in India and Japan, countries in which she has always been interested.

From Japan she will go to San Francisco, and having crossed the American continent, will return to Rome via New York and Genoa.

Woman in Jeans Paints Her House

CHICAGO, May 9.—Miss May Shepard, 1118 Chicago avenue, Evanston, declares she will finish painting her house, despite criticism and comments by residents of Evanston.

"The only reason that I am not out there now," she said, "is because it is raining. I do not see why it is anybody's business if I want to paint my own house."

Miss Shepard engaged a man several weeks ago, but he failed to appear. After buying paint, she borrowed a ladder from a neighbor and started to put the first coat of paint on the front porch. Soon she discovered that her skirts interfered with her movements on the ladder.

The painter hurried down from the ladder and went into the house. She reappeared soon, clothed in overalls and a jumper, and began work with apparent satisfaction. A man passing on a street car recognized her. The news quickly spread, and not many minutes had passed before Miss Shepard was surrounded by many neighbors, applauding and criticizing her work. Beating a hasty retreat to the house, Miss Shepard expressed her feelings against the intruders.

This Woman Saw Husband Just 1 Minute in 17 Years

ST. LOUIS, May 9.—According to the evidence in the case of Mrs. Emma Thompson, who obtained a divorce in Judge Kinsey's division of the Circuit Court, her husband, John, disappeared nearly nineteen years ago. After she had mourned him as dead he reappeared nearly seventeen years later, and she saw him for a minute, since when she has seen or heard nothing of him.

They were married July 5, 1881, and have four children. He deserted her July 13, 1886, she charged. He had been good and kind to her and had not given her any trouble, except that he spent money in betting on horse races and playing cards, she stated.

Woman Walks 50 Miles in Record Time and Wants to Do So Again

SYRACUSE, May 9.—Miss Hilda Kupfer, of the class of 1906, Syracuse University, has made herself famous by her feat of walking from this city to Utica, a distance of fifty miles, in two days. She started at 6:30 a. m., arrived at Oneida at 4:45 p. m., where she remained over night, and starting at 5 a. m. from Oneida, reached Utica in time to catch the 4 o'clock train for home.

"I enjoy that sort of excursion above all things," said Miss Kupfer. "It seems to me the most delightful way possible of becoming acquainted with people and with nature. I have often wished that I were an English girl, because they are so fond of walking. Here for a girl to walk five or six miles is considered something remarkable.

"I was born in China, you know, and there we have no way of getting where we wish to go unless we walk or are carried in palanquins, and from a child I have been more than fond of long tramps. The only difficulty is that I found it difficult to persuade any of the girls to go with me, even for such a little stroll as ten miles or so. I really believe that I never stop to rest much under five miles. It's better not to stop oftener than you can help.

"In regard to my walk of the other day, do you know I don't believe I ever enjoyed anything more in my life? The weather was perfect, and I was not encumbered with baggage of any kind. I had been warned of all sorts of unpleasant things, but no one of them occurred. Of course, I passed a lot of people from the time my trip began until it was ended, but not one of them paid any attention to me except, perhaps, to say 'Good morning.' At Chittenango I had the most inviting luncheon at the house of one of the pleasantest women I have ever met. I told her about my trip and she thought that it was a delightful idea, and I think so, too.

"I was in bed at Oneida before 8 o'clock that night, but in the morning I got an early start and was on my way again by 5 o'clock. When I got to Utica I had just four minutes to wait before it was time for the train going back to Syracuse.

"I felt as though I had been away for a year, and when I met two of my professors on the train I greeted them so effusively that I am sure I don't know what they thought of me. When I reached college the girls seemed so relieved that I couldn't help laughing at them. One would have thought that I had come back from a lions' den at least.

"I went to bed early, but the girls told me that the wife of one of the professors came over a few moments after I had retired and asked excitedly whether Hilda Kupfer had returned yet. When she was told that I had arrived safe and sound, but rather tired, she shook her head and exclaimed: 'Well, of all the idiots!' but I did not feel the least bit idiotic, and I am more than anxious to do the same thing again—only I should prefer to travel in another direction next time."

Cracked lips are often caused by ill health and indigestion. Put a little good cold cream in every night after washing, and overhaul your dietary, if you are troubled in this way and want to remedy the matter. Never bite your lips, however rough and uncomfortable they may feel. Biting makes matters worse rather than better, and is likely to permanently spoil the outline of the lips and make them thick and ugly.

Romance of a Diplomat From Corea Ended

Jilted Minister Flees From City.

Mrs. Ilah Dunlap Jordan and the Nicaraguan Minister. The Latter Leaves New York City Following Announcement That Mrs. Jordan Has Broken Their Engagement.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Senor Luis F. Corea, Nicaraguan Minister to the United States, whose engagement to Mrs. Ilah Dunlap Jordan, widow of Colonel Lee Jordan, has been broken off, has fled from the Waldorf and the city, to escape the notoriety resulting from the announcement.

Senor Corea was reported to be the most handsome man in the Diplomatic Corps, and at the beginning of the romance with the rich young widow, all went smoothly until rumors were circulated that Corea was not of pure Castilian blood, and that he had a wife and four children at home. Mrs. Jordan refused to credit these rumors, but it is said the notoriety caused her so much annoyance that she decided it would be wise to call off the engagement.

HONEYMOON TOUR IN FREIGHT CAR

MEADVILLE, Pa., May 9.—Undismayed by the fact that they did not have enough money for a wedding trip, Lillian Johnson, aged fifteen, and Frank Saunders, aged seventeen, were married at Alfred, N. Y., and started their bridal trip on a westbound Erie freight train.

Young Saunders saved up a small sum of money, but the parents objected to the match on account of their youth. They slipped from their homes, going to the office of a Justice of the Peace, and were wedded. The groom had a position in Chicago so he expended the most of his savings to send their belongings to the Windy City.

When they left Alfred they had besides their marriage certificate a small sum of money and a well-filled lunch basket. They arrived in Meadville early Sunday morning and by the kindness of Erie employes spent the night at the passenger station.

Monday evening the young couple went to Geneva on a freight, getting off at that town to get a bit to eat. When another freight started west the groom jumped into an empty box car and attempted to pull his bride into the car. He was unequal to the task and but for the prompt stopping of the train the honeymoon would have ended in a tragedy.

They were taken to a hotel by the kind-hearted operator and cared for until Tuesday morning. Some gentlemen took up a collection and secured enough money to purchase two first-class tickets to Chicago.

Bidding their new-found friends goodbye they left on train No. 7 in the afternoon for the Western metropolis.

Young Girls as a Preacher's Texts

Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke of New York has begun Sunday preachments to the young girl, this first one being entitled, "The Way to Womanhood," in which he emphasizes the necessity of their having healthy bodies, well-trained minds and good hearts, which indeed are all that either boy or girl need, to be both happy, useful and lead a good and successful life. In the way of fiction there are two stories and Mrs. Freeman's novel. Of the stories, "The Unbreakable Heart" is a light trifle by Dorothy Canfield. "The Journalistic Career of Evelyn," by Alice Katharine Fallows, who agreeably sketches what is always going on in the large city, the efforts of the clever and ambitious girl to make a place for herself among the crowded ranks of newspaper writers and contributors of story magazines. It relates the struggle, hard and beset with discouragements, though in this case ending in victory, that so many are going through. Mrs. Freeman's novel carries on her improvident southerners, with their curious code of morals, to an almost condition of siege, affairs having reached that stage that local tradesmen absolutely refuse to furnish meat and drink any longer without money, in which crisis one of the daughters proposes to sell herself in marriage to an old man, only that she, at least, may not be dunned by the butcher. The story reminds one of that amusing skit published now many years ago, entitled "The Colonel's Opera Cloak." The moral will probably be indicated presently. There are also poems, various papers on engaging a maid, on house-cleaning, curtains and draperies, etc. Altogether an interesting number, and particularly so, as is fitting in the season, in the fashions.

Married Woman is Adopted as Her Heir

ST. LOUIS, May 9.—Mrs. Anna M. Timmermann, a married woman, living in Webster Groves, was legally adopted by Elizabeth M. Bernd.

The deed of adoption was filed in the Recorder's office in Clayton.

In the deed, Mrs. Bernd recites that she raised Mrs. Timmermann, who was formerly Anna M. Arninger maintained, fed and clothed her from childhood; that they still reside together.

For the love and affection that she bears Mrs. Timmermann she has decided to make her her heir.

SPORTS

AMATEUR BASEBALL

★ Send in the makeup of your team. Also your challenges, games played and scheduled and any other information which might be of interest to amateur baseball fans. It will be prominently and promptly published on this page. Address the SPORTING EDITOR, OAKLAND TRIBUNE, Oakland, Calif. This paper is willing and desires to help the amateurs and their game in every way possible. Send in the news. There's only one condition—write plainly and ON ONE SIDE OF PAPER. ★

Sporting Editor:—The Casserly baseball team hereby challenges any amateur team in the State.

We would like to meet the Elcoves, Warren's O. K., Berkeley Eagles and the Vestibules on their first open date. We would also like to arrange a few country games.

Address all challenges to Chas. Gibson, 920 Sixth avenue, East Oakland.

The Royals of Oakland and the Occidents of West Berkeley will cross bats on the latter team's diamond next Sunday at Tenth and Delaware streets, West Berkeley.

Wilson will twirl for the Occidents, while Bailey will be in the box for the Royals.

The rest of the line-up in the teams is good and a fast game is expected.

The young Cutter baseball team has been organized for the season of 1905 It would like to hear from any team under thirteen years of age.

All challenges must be sent to Frank Veira, 1368 Fifteenth street, Oakland, Calif.

The Flyspecks again beat the Hector ball team by the score of 12 to 6. The winners would like to play any team under thirteen years of age.

Address all challenges to Frank Davis, 460 Hobart street, Oakland, Calif.

The Twenty-third Avenues defeated the Dewey School's first team Saturday by a score of 14 to 15 in a seven inning game.

The principal feature of the game was when Charles Appledorn of the Twenty-third Avenues went to the bat when two were out and the score was 12 to 14, and sent out a two-bagger, bringing in two men and then stealing home, winning the game.

Also when George Wolfrom, the Demon base steal, who was at the bat six times, getting six walks and six runs.

Sporting Editor:—We, the Libby baseball team, wish to have published the result of the game played at the Academy grounds yesterday at 2 p. m. We played against a strong nine, but our pitcher, B. Swabey, held them down to eight hits, while we made fourteen. The feature of the game was a wonderful catch made by our short stop, M. Bankhead. The score was 10 to 7 in our favor at the end of the ninth.

We will accept a challenge from any team averaging thirteen years.

The line-up is as follows: Milton Bankhead, short stop; Vin Hughes, center field; Elwood Nickerson, second base; Wesley Cannon, third base; Willie Hartz, first base and pitcher; Gussie Smith, catcher; Alvin Stout, right field; Joe Hansen, left field; Beverly Swabey, first base and pitcher; extra, Cliff, Serell.

Address all challenges to W. Hartz, captain, 965 San Pablo avenue, Oakland, Calif.

The Mulveys have organized for the season and issue a sweeping challenge to all teams.

Fred D. Realy, the old-timer, will twirl the benders, and great things are expected of him, as he understands his position from A to Z. The line-up is as follows:

Fred D. Realy, pitcher; O. Gardiner, catcher; Sol Gordon, first base; M. Gulcovich, second base; Charlie Muller, third base; O. P. Hansen, short stop; Jim Powell, center field; James Fields, right field; Scotchie McMullian, left field; utility men—James Mansfield, Dan Mullen, John J. Gavin.

Address all challenges to John J. Mulvey, 749 Market street, Oakland, Calif.

SAN LEANDRO, May 9.—It has been found necessary to build an extension to the large grandstand recently erected on the ball grounds. The work is under way already. The capacity of the structure will be increased to seat about 200 more people than formerly.

The next game will be with the J. H. Cutter nine of San Francisco. It was impossible for the game scheduled to take place Sunday with the Puck Eyes to be played, on account of the rain.

AUTO RACE 'CROSS CONTINENT.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Two automobiles have started from New York to race to Portland, Or., for a cash prize of $1,000 offered by the National Good Roads Association, whose convention opens in Portland on June 21.

The men hope to reach Portland in time for the opening of the convention.

HANLON GOES INTO TRAINING AT ALAMEDA FOR HIS BOUT WITH CORBETT

The bit of paper necessary to hold a professional boxing contest in San Francisco was obtained yesterday afternoon by Alexander Greggains, manager of the San Francisco Athletic Club. Greggains has matched Eddie Hanlon and Young Corbett for his June show.

Corbett and Hanlon will both start training tomorrow. Corbett has been out at Sheehan's for about a week, but has not been doing much work. Hanlon, who will train at Croll's Gardens in Alameda, went into camp yesterday. Eddie is somewhat heavy, as appeared at Woodward's the night of the Britt-White fight, but he has less to take off than Corbett. Hanlon has Frank McDonald as a sparring partner, as it was McDonald who trained Corbett for his match with Bat Nelson. Tim McGrath will handle the Denver boy.

June 2 has been set for the date of the match, and Manager Greggains is inclined to the belief that the betting will be at evens on the night of the fight. Both men realize that they are fighting to retain ring prestige as well as for the purse, and they will do their best. Alex Greggains thinks White can be induced to stay here to meet the winner, and overtures to this end have been made the Englishman, but he has not decided whether or not to accept the offer, although both Corbett and Hanlon have agreed to meet him if he will stay.

JEFFRIES SAYS That Championship Title Will Go to FITZSIMMONS

CHICAGO, May 9.—James J. Jeffries, the undefeated heavy-weight champion pugilist, who is playing a theatrical engagement here, says he is going to retire from the stage and the ring on Saturday night, and that he will bequeath his pugilistic honors to Bob Fitzsimmons.

"Bob Fitzsimmons is the only man in the world who gave me a hard fight for the championship," said Jeffries. "I never was defeated, and he never yielded to anybody but myself; therefore, I think he is entitled to the honors which I now surrender. I admire his prowess.

"I entered the ring originally because I wanted to lick a negro who created a disturbance at a Los Angeles picnic. I wanted to fight him right there, but was persuaded to hold off two weeks. Then we mixed it, and I won, although the negro had a local reputation as a pugilist. He was Hank Griffin. When I got through with him he was never heard of again."

Jeffries has muscular rheumatism in his hands, and suffers greatly in his nightly boxing bouts at the theater.

JABEZ WHITE TO STAY A WHILE

Jabez White and Charlie Mitchell have decided to stay in this country a while and see if they cannot collect some of the prize money that is hung up here for short goes. They are likely to succeed. The first offer was received yesterday afternoon from Al Hereford at Baltimore. Hereford wants the Englishman to meet Joe Gans for fifteen rounds, but he made mention of only $2000, and Charlie Mitchell, who has rapidly assimilated American views, says the dinero is entirely insufficient. This, notwithstanding that White has rarely had an opportunity to mill for even the short end of a 60 and 40 per cent division of such a purse.

When White fought Spike Sullivan the winner's end of the purse was not $1200, and there has not been a purse much in excess of this for anything but heavies in England since Hall fought, with the exception of one which Philadelphia Jack O'Brien dragged down.

There is an offer for White to fight Herrera, but there is no guarantee, and the English contingent is averse to consider an offer from Montana. Gans and White are both about the same age, both are clever, the negro draws well in Baltimore if he doesn't here, and Hereford will probably raise the ante. In the meantime White is resting from his fight of Friday night and is entirely recovered from the injury to his side and face.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard of 209 W. 34th street, New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Osgoods' drug stores, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington streets.

PREPARE FOR BIG YACHT RACE

NEW YORK, May 9.—The eleven yachts entered for the Kaiser's cup race across the Atlantic from Sandy Hook Lightship are being given their final preparations for the contest.

By the end of this week all will be ready for the start, on May 16, and a day or so before that time the majority will be at anchor inside Sandy Hook awaiting the official sendaway.

Most of the yachts already have been docked and their auxiliary propellers removed, leaving no means of propulsion except by sail, and from now on the crews will be busy taking aboard stores for the long voyage.

FULLER IS PASSING AWAY

NEW YORK, May 9.—Jockey Grover Cleveland Fuller is dying in St. Mary's Hospital at Jamaica, L. I. Fuller was thrown with his mount, Witful, in the Excelsior Handicap run at Jamaica. The jockey was stepped upon by one of the field and his right knee cap was severed. Blood poisoning has set in and the doctors entertain no hope for his recovery. Fuller was the premier jockey of the world when dissipation did not incapacitate him.

He won the American Derby last year on Highball, and rode all last winter at Los Angeles. Fuller made his appearance at Oakland on February 4th, riding J. McLaughlin's Pasadena in the Burns Handicap and Blue Coat in a five-furlong dash.

MARVIN HART WINS FROM WILLIE

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—Marvin Hart of Louisville, Ky., had the best of a poor six-round bout with John Willie of Chicago last night at the Washington Sporting Club. Hart was the aggressor throughout, hitting Willie almost where he pleased, while the Chicago man did little more than try to avoid punishment. Only a small crowd witnessed the bout.

OPENS HIS LABORATORIES.

Doctor Pierce Asks Visitors to Go Through His Establishment to See Process of Manufacture.

PROVES MEDICINES PURE.

For the purpose of showing the purity and honesty of his medicines, the "Favorite Prescription" and the "Golden Medical Discovery," Doctor R. V. Pierce has thrown open to public inspection his laboratories and works in Buffalo.

At any time visitors are made welcome and shown through the establishment by competent guides.

These guides explain the detailed and scientific work of the skilled chemists and just how and of what the modern medicine is made.

THE GATHERING OF MEDICINAL PLANTS.

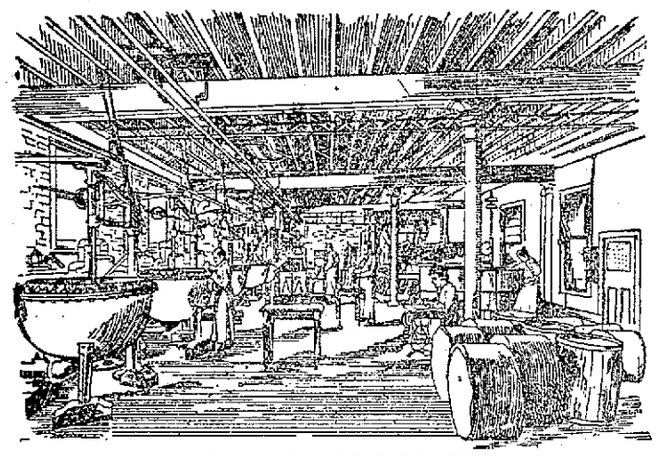

To every visitor is also explained the system by which every user of Dr. Pierce's medicines receives individual care from one or more Specialists.

For forty years Dr. Pierce has been actively engaged in the manufacture of his prescriptions. His fully equipped laboratory has grown and expanded until now it is the largest and most complete one known. Dr. Pierce's success is real. There is a steadily increasing demand for his medicines, proving conclusively that they are not nostrums, but reliable remedies for diseases.

Specially educated for the medical profession, he early supplemented his studies by extensive and original research in its several departments. In these specialties he has become an authority and recognized leader. Many of his remedies have been adopted and used by leading physicians in their private practice.

This success, of course, has not grown without awakening criticism and arousing comment. A man who has the courage to break away from the narrow ethics of the medical profession and advertise broadcast his medicines for men and women is sure to be assailed.

A visit is worth while if only to witness the excellent methods by which each applicant for aid, whether he be correspondent or a patient at the sanitarium, receives the care of eminent Specialists in medicine and surgery.

A MODERN SCIENTIFIC LABORATORY.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the most efficient spring tonic and blood purifier known. It has stood the test of time—is safe and certain.

THE PROOF.

From long experience Dr. Pierce acquired the knowledge of how to combine the ingredients in just the right proportion in his "Golden Medical Discovery" for the treatment of chronic diseases.

This medicine contains the non-alcoholic extracts of the following native plants:

GOLDEN SEAL (Hydrastis Canadensis).
QUEEN'S ROOT (Stillingia Sylvatica).
STONE ROOT (Collinsonia Canadensis).
CHERRYBARK (Prunus Virginiana).
BLOODROOT (Sanguinaria Canadensis).
MANDRAKE (Podophyllum Peltatum).

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL GIVE NEW SERVICE.

Twenty Minute Trains Will Be Run to Suburban Towns.

Many Changes Will Be Made in Oakland and Alameda.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—The passenger department of the Southern Pacific Company announces many important changes in the suburban service. There will be a twenty minute service and the last boat will leave at 1:20 a. m.

The important thing about the promised improvement in the local suburban service is the fact that it involves more frequent boats and trains through the day and evening, the running of boats nearly an hour later than at present and an expedited service to the several suburban communities. It is announced that all boats and trains serving Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and Fruitvale will be operated on a twenty-minute schedule from 5:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m., and on a forty-minute schedule from that hour until 1:20 a. m. Additional trains are to be put in service, and with a view to expediting the handling of the local traffic at the pier, where more or less delay is caused by the present practice of collecting tickets as passengers pass through the gates, arrangements will be made to collect tickets on the trains. The gates leading to the waiting-rooms at the pier will be removed, thus affording a free and unobstructed movement of the crowds to and from the boats.

CHANGE IN TRAINS.

These are not the only features of the proposed improvement in the local suburban service. Two trains, connecting with each boat, will serve Oakland and Fruitvale. The Oakland local now operated by way of Seventh street will continue to make the regular stops from West Oakland as far as Oak-street station. The East Oakland territory and Fruitvale will be given a thorough and expedited train service by way of First street, thus saving to the passenger residing in that section the delays consequent upon the six stops now made by the local trains in Oakland proper. This train to East Oakland and Fruitvale, instead of switching and returning from that point, will swing around into Alameda, gather up the travel of the Broad Gauge line in that city and continue on to the Alameda pier. Similarly trains from the Alameda pier, connecting with the Alameda line boats, will run out Railroad avenue in Alameda, and, instead of switching and returning from the present terminus at Park street, will continue on a Fruitvale and back through Oakland by way of First street, picking up passengers at Fruitvale and all East Oakland points for San Francisco. The operation of these trains on the swing or horseshoe plan will involve some track changes, so that it will be two or three weeks before the new suburban service can be inaugurated.

The important thing to be gained by this arrangement from the Southern Pacific Company's standpoint, will be to relieve the estuary bridge at Harrison street of all local traffic, except such Oakland travel as is handled by the Webster-street line. The diversion of all Alameda Broad-Gauge travel to the Alameda Mole will greatly simplify the handling of all Alameda business, from the company's standpoint, and give a faster service to the commuter who travels on the Alameda Broad Gauge line. The changes in the suburban train service, so far as they affect Oakland, East Oakland, Fruitvale and Berkeley are calculated to meet with popular approval as the residents of those sections will be given a twenty-minute service, where they now enjoy a half-hourly service, and a much later service after midnight.

FOR ALAMEDA.

From the standpoint of the Alameda resident, however, the innovations planned in the service of that city are not so alluring. Residents of Alameda whose homes are within reach of both broad and narrow gauge trains now have the advantage of a fifteen minute service on the two lines. No changes are contemplated in the boat service to the Alameda pier, and the operation of all Alameda trains by way of the Alameda pier will thus deprive the Alameda resident of the service via Oakland pier. The officials of the company point out that the operation of the East Oakland trains on the swing plan will enable Alameda residents to reach their homes via this route if they so desire, so that they will have the trains an hour instead of four as at present.

ELECTRIC PLANS.

There has been some talk of late that the Southern Pacific might carry out an elaborately prepared plan to convert the local lines across the bay into electric roads, plans and estimates for which have been prepared by Electrical Engineer Babcock. Judging from the elaborate preparations and many permanent track changes to be made for the continuation of the present steam lines under the new system of operation, however, it would appear that the scheme of an electric system across the bay has been abandoned, at least for the present.

WHAT GOODMAN SAYS.

Discussing the proposed changes General Passenger Agent Goodman said yesterday:

"The highly desired result of this plan will be to remove all traffic from the estuary bridge except the Webster street line, and diverting the Alameda broad gauge travel to the Alameda mole. It will also have the practical effect of giving the central portion of Oakland a ten-minute service to and from the city all day, and a twenty minute service till late at night. Another important change will be in the collection of tickets on the trains and the complete abandonment of the present method of gate collections at the piers. These gates will be removed, thus affording free and easy movement of the crowds to and from the boats. As soon as the work of construction will permit the track accommodations the piers will be much enlarged so as to aid the readier flow of travel.

"Pending other work of construction, such as connecting the Alameda broad gauge on Railroad avenue line with the Alameda pier, and a few other matter, it may be necessary to carry the Oakland broad gauge business via Fruitvale, but it will not involve any loss of time or other inconvenience and will only be temporary, and the ultimate result when all plans are fully perfected will be a vastly improved service for the entire suburban system."

OLCOTT COMING TO MACDONOUGH

SINGING PLAYER WILL GIVE TWO PERFORMANCES HERE.

Chauncey Olcott, the favorite comedian and sweetest of singers, comes to the Macdonough Theater for two nights this week in two new plays on Thursday and Friday. On Thursday night he will appear in a magnificent production of his popular romantic comedy, "A Romance of Athlone," by Augustus Pitou, his manager. Nothing handsomer in scenery, costumes and effect has ever been seen on any stage. The star and play have made a substantial hit in all the large cities and the press and public gave their approval during the five months it ran on Broadway, New York. The play has genuine heart interest, plenty of romance and comedy and just enough pathos to satisfy the average audience, and gives Mr. Olcott in the title character a chance to show all his poses, the part calling for strong dramatic work, while the comedy is most bright and witty. Mr. Olcott's ever popular song, "My Wild Irish Rose," was written and composed by him expressly for this play. On Friday night Mr. Olcott will present his latest success, "Terence," a play of the present time, dramatized from the novel by Mrs. B. M. Croker. Seats are now on sale for both performances at popular prices.

The sale of seats opens today at the box office of the Macdonough Theater for the forthcoming engagement of White Whittlesey, the new Belasco star, who comes here for a return appearance. Whittlesey and his superb supporting company will be presented by Belasco, Mayer and Price, as follows: At the Sunday matinee, May 14, in the famous music-romance, "Heartsease," and on Sunday night in Richard Harding Davis' thrilling story of South American revolution, "Soldiers of Fortune." This will terminate Whittlesey's first starring season, which has lasted for thirty weeks and has been most successful.

Judging by the very heavy demand for seats registered at the Macdonough Theater the forthcoming visit of White Whittlesey will be greeted by crowded houses during the engagement.

BEING STARVED BY STRIKERS

NEW YORK, May 9.—M. Beaulieu, a leather manufacturer, is reported to have been in a state of siege at his private house in Limoges, cables the Herald correspondent at Paris. Striking workmen from the leather factory surrounded the Beaulieu home and prevented tradesmen from entering with provisions. Finally the manufacturer telephoned Mayor Lubüssiere that he and nine persons, with three horses, were suffering from hunger.

Beaulieu refused to parley with the strikers until their hunger was satisfied, whereupon a policeman was dispatched to the nearest restaurant for provisions.

On his return the besiegers, whose number had increased, made a show of preventing him from entering the house.

The Mayor made a speech stating that bread would be distributed at the city hall, but the excited strikers stood their ground and allowed only one loaf of bread to be delivered. Subsequently, the manufacturer agreed to a conference with the workmen but no settlement has yet been reached.

MRS. KLING IS AFTER A DIVORCE

Mrs. Cora B. Kling yesterday instituted divorce proceedings against her husband, William A. Kling, who was formerly secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city. The ground for divorce is alleged to be desertion. The Klings were married at Ilion, N. Y., on June 7, 1882. In the divorce proceedings Mrs. Kling asks for the custody of their 16-year-old son, Harold B. Kling, and $75 per month alimony. Mrs. Kling alleges that when her husband is employed he earns a salary of $250 a month. She also says that her husband left her on April 1 of last year.

About a month ago the troubles of the Klings came before the public, when it was reported that they had separated and that Mrs. Kling was about to sue for divorce, but this was denied by Mrs. Kling, who stated that her husband was sending her money regularly.

AN EASTER DAY

The following is an account of an Oakland boy's Easter in the mountains:

"Easter Sunday, ye twenty-third day of April.

"I was in church today, God's own church.

"The church of all outdoors.

"The altar was decorated by Mother Nature with the prettiest of green foliage and banks upon banks of sweet-scented wild flowers.

"The breeze that whispered through the trees was the organ, and the choir was made up of thousands of voices that blended one with another. Such music and sweet melody; music that came from the hearts of the little singers, that left no doubt as to the sincerity of their songs.

"There was no minister in this church, unless it was the voice of God, speaking through the voices of the singers. No need of a sermon in this church. The beauty of it all was sermon enough for me, and I was glad to be one of the congregation. My Easter bonnet was an old black hat, and I wore a pair of overalls, but the services in the church went on just the same, and even while I write the choir is still singing and the organ playing. F. G. CAMPBELL."

PROHIBITION CAMPAIGN.

Oliver W. Stewart of Chicago is now in California campaigning for the Prohibition State Committee. Next Sunday he will speak in Oakland twice and in Berkeley in the afternoon. Then he will go to San Luis Obispo, Paso Robles and other places.

The payment from the sewer bond redemption fund constitutes the last payment to be made from the fund, the debt being now canceled.

SANITARY CONDITIONS.

Health Officer Rainhardt reported, calling attention to the sanitary conditions in the block bounded by Grayson, Seventh, Snyder avenue and Eighth street. Twelve houses in this block are not connected with a sewer.

The Street Superintendent was directed to attend to the matter.

DR. BENTON APPOINTED.

Dr. Gladding resigned from the Board of Health and Dr. Julian Benton was appointed to the place.

ELECTRICIAN'S REPORT.

Electrician Ryder reported that eleven permits were issued for electric work in old houses and for work in new houses fifty-eight were issued.

SEWER WORK.

Town Engineer McClure reported, recommending that the property north of Cordinices creek, fronting on Spruce and Oxford streets, be sewered with a six-inch outlet in the rear of the property, or a right of way to be obtained by the town. He also recommended that a sewer be built on the easterly side of Oxford street to connect with the Cordinices creek sewer. The report was referred to the Street Committee.

FOR USE OF "COPS."

Marshall Vollmer's request for 1,000 cartridges, for use by his men in target practice, was referred to the Finance Committee.

NEW CHARTER WANTED.

A petition from the Advance Publishing Company, asking that a committee of fifteen citizens be appointed to draw up amendments to the charter, was referred to the president, with power to act.

C. R. LORD, RECENTLY ELECTED TOWN TREASURER OF BERKELEY

LIQUOR IN BERKELEY

Theo. Gier's Request For Liquor License at Ashby Arouses Discussion.

BERKELEY, May 9.—Theodore Gier's application for a license to conduct a liquor store at Ashby station occasioned a lengthy discussion before the Board of Trustees last night. Mr. Gier's bond, accompanying the petition, was rejected, being improperly made out.

Trustee Staats said Mr. Gier might as well be informed that the Trustees would not grant a license in Ashby, there being an unwritten law to that effect in the board. He moved that Mr. Gier be informed to that effect.

Trustee Shaad seconded the motion, the district affected being represented by him.

Mr. Gier's application stated his willingness to comply fully with all the laws of the town regarding liquor licenses. He declared that his trade in Berkeley has grown so that a branch store is greatly needed.

Trustee Rickard said: "We get $30 a quarter from him now, and if we grant his petition we will get $75 a quarter."

Trustee Hoff favored Mr. Gier's application, while Trustee Connor wanted it all sent to the License Committee. Trustee Shaad alone voted with Staats on the motion to send Mr. Gier a letter denying the request. The motion was lost, the matter being referred to the License Committee.

AUTO DESTROYS ITSELF

PORTLAND, Maine, May 9.—A large touring automobile just purchased by W. B. Thombs has caused much excitement in the streets here and finally destroyed itself.

A few hours after Thombs bought the car it suddenly jumped away from the roadway in front of his home, on the Eastern Promenade, and, with no one in it, whizzed at top speed for a mile along the promenade, running over and slightly injuring one man, causing two runaways, scattering people right and left. Finally the machine swerved to the left and out of the street and plunged over a forty foot embankment to the railway tracks, near which it brought up a total wreck.

SPRING.

Spring is like a maid coquettish
That no thing will please
But the bringing of each fellow
Quickly to his knees.

That's what spring is, changing weather,
Snow and blow and freeze;
Like a maid it brings a fellow
Quickly to his sneeze.

ENGINES NEEDED

Fire Chief Kenny Says Department Must Have a Modern Equipment.

BERKELEY, May 9.—Fire Chief Kenny told the Board of Trustees last night that "the time has come when this department cannot do without chemical engines or combined hose and chemical wagons, as the business stores are more numerous and are carrying thousands of dollars of stock." Said the Fire Chief: "Fires in business portions of the town have not been large, as the department has been quick in reaching them, but we cannot cut down any loss in contents when we have to use water as our only means of extinguishing them, and will say that if this department had chemicals our losses would be nominal."

The matter was referred to the Fire and Water Committee.

Chief Kenny asked that a team for the Peralta fire company be provided, as a single horse is not able to do the work; asked that H. J. Squires be made captain, to take charge of fires in absence of the Chief, at a regular compensation of $25 a month; that all regular men be allowed a vacation this summer. All these matters were referred to the Fire and Water Committee.

THOROUGH LINE IS PLANNED

NEW YORK, May 9.—At a special meeting in this city the directors of the Colorado & Southern Railway have, according to the Herald, adopted radical measures for the carrying out of the program they contemplate in making the Colorado & Southern a thorough line to the Gulf.

To this end they decided to incorporate the road in another State and ask the stockholders to authorize a $100,000,000 bond issue at their meeting in Denver on June 15.

Of the $100,000,000 in bonds, $37,000,000 are for the purpose of refunding underlying bonds, and $17,000,000 are intended for taking over the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway, buying the Trinity and Brazos Valley Railway and building 165 miles of new road to Houston, Tex. Among other acquisitions contemplated is the Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek Railway. These plans, which have been frequently alluded to recently, will, in a measure, cause a regrouping of railroad interests over a large territory in the Southwest.

WORK ON STREETS

Matters Affecting Roadways Reported on By Committee.

BERKELEY, May 9.—Street work and improvements of various kinds affecting the roadways in Berkeley were reported upon by the Street Committee of the Board of Trustees last night, the board adopting the report as read:

That Russell street, from College avenue to Claremont avenue, be graded, curbed, guttered and macadamized.

That Fourth street, from the Haft tract to Gilman street, be graded, curbed, guttered and macadamized.

That a twenty-foot driveway be constructed across the park area at Piedmont avenue to its junction with Durant avenue.

That cement walks be constructed on Etna street, from Dwight way southerly, where not already laid.

That the Town Engineer be instructed to report to this board the best plan to sewer Spruce, Oxford and Walnut streets from the north town line southerly.

That the matter of laying a wooden sidewalk on Eighth street, from Grayson street southerly be deferred for two or three months.

That the sprinkling cart now in use in the Scenic Park tract be altered in accordance with plans of the Street Superintendent.

That the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, the Oakland Traction Consolidated, the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Railway Company and all companies using the streets of the town of Berkeley for railway purposes be requested to raise their track beds to a level with the top of the rails.

That the proceedings in the matter of opening Allston way, between Telegraph avenue and Dana street be rescinded pending negotiations with the University authorities in reference to said street.

We do not recommend changing the name of Panoramic way to University terrace for the reason that the latter name will conflict with University avenue and recommend that the petitioners suggest some other suitable name for said roadway.

The report was adopted.

THIRTY INJURED IN COLLISION

NEW YORK, May 9.—In a head-on collision between two trolley cars on Staten Island, thirty persons have been injured. Mrs. Dora Davidson of New York probably will die.

Both cars were well filled with passengers when they came together. The platforms of the cars were battered to splinters and many of the passengers were hurled to the pavement. All were severely cut and bruised except Mrs. Davidson, who was hurt internally. Misunderstanding of signals is said to have caused the accident.

ALARMED BY FIRE.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—A fire which broke out in the kitchen of the Hotel Regent at the corner of Fifteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue early today caused great alarm to the large number of guests in the house. They hurriedly rushed down stairs into the office and street, while some got out of the hotel by the fire escapes. The fire department promptly responded and the flames were extinguished without much difficulty. The loss was only nominal and no one was injured.

WEEDING OUT MEN

Incompetents in Fire Department to Be Reported to Trustees.

BERKELEY, May 9.—The Fire and Water Committee of the Board of Town Trustees reported last night recommending that no member of the Fire Department who is not in a position to respond to fire calls at any time of the day or night be given pay by the town. The report was adopted and Chief Kenny was instructed to report the names of such firemen, if there are any in the department.

It was recommended by the same committee that a hydrant be placed on the west side of Shattuck avenue at the corner of Allston way, and that sufficient hose be provided to connect with same to protect the present Town Hall property. The report was adopted.

POSTPONE ANNUAL PICNIC

HAYWARDS CARPENTERS DECIDE TO GIVE WAY TO FOURTH OF JULY.

HAYWARDS, May 9.—It has been decided by the union carpenters of this place to put off their annual picnic for several weeks in order that it may not interfere with the Fourth of July celebration. At first it had been the plan to have the excursion on July 3d, but it has been deemed necessary to hold the poultry show on that day.

Members of the Carpenters' unions of Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and other towns of the county will be present at the picnic. It will be an open air convention and a small amount of business will be transacted. A grand dinner will be served and the visitors are to make speeches.

The poultry show is going to be a great success. A large number of the farmers around have promised to send their best birds, and pigeon fanciers from all over the county are to have exhibits there. The assistance of the Oakland Poultry Association has been promised and the town has been loaned 200 coops for the chickens. Jesse Woods has charge of the preparations for the show.

TO GIVE PARK.

A large tract of park land is soon to be given the town by the owner, J. Strobridge of Castro Valley. The land lies in a very favorable location, on the proposed boulevard, in Castro Valley. It has often been used by the inhabitants of Haywards as a picnic ground. The gift will be much appreciated by the citizens.

G. TOYNE'S PORTRAIT.

Money is being raised by subscription for the purpose of placing in the new library a large engraving of G. Toyne. He is one of the oldest residents and is largely responsible for the fact that Haywards has the handsome library building, the gift of Andrew Carnegie. He first started the movement to have the town ask for the $10,000 necessary to build the edifice. He took a prominent part, too, in founding the present collection.

The sum of $15 has been raised for the portrait, and the rest will soon be subscribed.

MEETING EVERY NIGHT.

Meetings every night are to be held in the First New Thought Church, something never attempted before. There will be meetings every evening and Sundays. This evening Professor Perkins with his cheerful psychology, Shakesperean and character interpretations, mirth and music.

BIDS ASKED FOR POSTOFFICE

ALAMEDA LEASE ABOUT EXPIRED—PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES.

ALAMEDA May 9.—The Postoffice Department has posted notices calling for sealed bids for a lease of premises suitable for the local government institution which must be presented not later than June 1st. The present quarters have been occupied for five years, and the expiration of the lease, shortly to occur, gives rise to speculations as to whether another move is contemplated.

SOCIAL NOTES.

ALAMEDA, May 9.—California Council, Young Men's Institute, is to give a ball on the 24th instant in Lafayette Hall. Dancing is to commence at 8 o'clock.

An entertainment is to be given by the Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society on May 25 in Harmonie Hall. There will be music and dancing.

At a meeting of the Commercial Alumni of the Alameda High School at the home of Elmo Culbert 1916 Pacific avenue, there was a discussion on the matter of forming an auxiliary association to take in all students who had taken a portion of the High School course. No action was taken on the proposition.

Next Friday evening students of the High School are to present the comedy "A Scrap of Paper" in the Park Theater. The young women in the cast are to wear old-time costumes, including the hoopskirts of the period of 1860.

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY.

ALAMEDA, May 9.—Spruce Circle, Women of Woodcraft, is to celebrate the fourth anniversary of the local circle on Thursday evening at Woodmen Hall when there will be interesting exercises. An exceptionally fine program is to be rendered including an exhibition drill by the guards of Oakland Circle and refreshments will be served. The affair will be strictly invitational each member being entitled to a certain number of invitations.

MUSIC AT UNITARIAN CHURCH.

ALAMEDA, May 9.—In the months of May and June the music at the First Unitarian church on Grand street will be in charge of the following: Organist and musicale director, Robert Harden; soloist, Miss Anne Flint, soprano, Volunteer quartette for May-June to lead congregation of singing, Miss Flint, soprano; Miss Mary Van Orden, alto; Walter Tibbetts, tenor; Fred T. Moore, baritone.

PERSONAL NOTES.

ALAMEDA, May 9.—City Trustee William M. Bowers has returned after a trip to Livermore and vicinity.

Mrs. C. Spreckels of 1807 Railroad avenue departed yesterday for Rutherford, Napa county, where she is to sojourn for a month.

Dr. C. George Bull has gone on a vacation trip to Plattsville, Plumas county, and does not expect to return before June.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gorham are planning a trip to the Yosemite Valley. They expect to leave on the 15th inst., and to be absent for a fortnight.

L. B. Bunnell, a hotel proprietor of Plattsville, Plumas county, has been seriously ill at the Alameda Sanatorium, but is now on the road to recovery.

Mrs. George C. Thompson has been made secretary of the musci section of the Adelphian Club, vice Mrs. Elbridge Gray Smith, resigned.

Miss Mae Burton is confined to her home by illness.

The Men's Club of the First Presbyterian church is to hold a meeting this evening.

Mrs. A. W. Porter of 1816 San Jose avenue, has gone to the Eastern States, to be absent for two months.

DEMOCRATIC READING.

A girl's ignorance so often puts her at a disadvantage with men. She is so likely to take a man's words and looks to mean what they would if it were she who said or looked them. The only way to learn this hardest of lessons is by experience, and it is seldom learned except at the expense of a great deal of suffering, which, however, can be minimized if she has read widely. One little bit of real experience will then materialize all her knowledge gained from reading.

There is one very strong reason why I should be reluctant to put restrictions on a daughter's reading. You can't live in a democracy and bring up children as if it were an aristocracy. Freedom is in the air they breathe and their lungs demand it. I should expect to be done with forbidding before the age of novel reading. After a girl is 12 or 13, if she is a strong character she generally resents a positive prohibition. It only creates friction; and once you have made your children feel out of sympathy with you your influence is gone. It is better to let them work out their own salvation. You wait distinct individuals, not copies of yourself.—Elizabeth Knight Tompkins in Good Housekeeping.

PUT CURB ON STUDENTS' DIVERSIONS.

Revolutionary Plan of Executive Committee at University Arouses Storm of Protest.

BERKELEY, May 9.—A howl has gone up from the students of the University over the revolutionary action proposed by the executive committee of the Associated Students, in declaring that hereafter all student diversions such as dramatic affairs, dances, jinks, and all social functions must receive the approval of the executive committee of the Associated Students before being carried out. Hitherto, classes, societies, fraternities and clubs have had their own way in such matters, and when a play or dance or other affair was decided on by a clique, the entire University was likely to be called on to support the enterprise. Many of them have been failures, and their number has been so great as to weaken the forces of all, and in the opinion of the executive committee, seriously impair the intellectual results achieved by students.

The committee quietly adopted the following resolutions recently, sent them to President Wheeler for his approval or suggestion, and received from him the authority to go ahead, and assume control in the manner suggested in the resolutions.

Whereas, the executive committee of the Associated Students duly authorized body to regulate certain college activities and to feel the pulse of the student body on matters of common interest; and

Whereas, the increasing number of diversions of the character of banquets, plays, receptions and dances, offered to students of California, consumes the time of students to the detriment of other advantages of college life; and

Whereas, there are at least three working methods by which the number and frequency of these diversions can be regulated to the benefit of all concerned, viz: (1) by insisting that any class, college or college organization, intending to offer a diversion in the nature above described, shall first obtain the permission of the President of the University for such diversions, or (2) of the executive committee of the Associated Students of the University; or (3) by allowing such diversions, which have become part of the undergraduate life, as the freshman glee, the freshman reception, the sophomire hop, the junior promenade, the senior ball, the senior assemblies, the colonial ball, the senior banquet, banquets by colleges, the Carnot banquet, senior singing, art association concerts, the half hours of music, the football show, the junior farce, the senior extravaganza, the Skull and Keys play, one play in the fall term under the auspices of the University Dramatic Association, one play in the spring term under the combined auspices of the Mask and Dagger and the In the Meantime clubs, one entertainment a year by the French club, the Spanish club and the Sprechverbund, respectively — not more than two of these to occur in the same term, and such of the diversions offered to women as the executive committee of the Associated Women Students shall designate, and by insisting that all other diversions shall be regulated by a properly approved authority; Therefore be it

Resolved, That the executive committee of the Associated Students request President Wheeler to have the number and frequency of such diversions regulated by some one of the above suggested methods.

SMALL FIRE AT FRUITVALE

DAMAGE DONE TO PLUMBING SHOP OF C. S. PARKS YESTERDAY.

FRUITVALE, May 9.—There was a small fire in the plumbing shop of C. S. Parks on Fruitvale avenue yesterday morning. The fire occurred about 9 o'clock and the origin is not known. It is thought that a stranger who was in the shop smoking a cigar might have let a spark drop in a bale of oakum on the floor, as the oakum is almost all burned up. There is a possibility also that the material took fire spontaneously.

The boy who works for Parks, Charlie Cross by name, had left the place with the wagon shortly before the conflagration started. Happening to think of an article left behind he returned, and found the smoke coming out of the back room.

He called for help and the neighbors turned out en masse. P. J. Hellman and Joe Keck ran into Zeph's cigar store and got the hand extinguisher there. By emptying the contents of this on the rising flames they almost put out the fire.

In the meantime J. Capp, who was driving by in his express wagon, drove at a gallop to the firehouse on Bray avenue, and fastening the hose cart to the tail of the wagon brought it to the scene of action in a very short time. The men quickly attached the hose to the hydrant at the corner of East Fourteenth street and had a stream on the fire within a few seconds.

The damage resulting from the fire and water is not great, the only total loss being the bale of oakum.

STEED TAKES FRIGHT.

Alarmed by the fire and excitement, the delivery horse of Hermann von Duren, which had been left standing near the spot, suddenly started forward and ran up Fruitvale avenue toward Fourteenth street. On the way he collided with an ice wagon, which held firm, and the buggy of the Buelah Home standing before Warren's drug store. The left rear wheel was torn from the latter vehicle, but the runaway horse was seized and stopped by a bystander.

IN HONOR OF HER BIRTHDAY

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY IS GIVEN TO MISS MAY HOOPER AT ELMHURST.

ELMHURST, May 9.—In honor of the eighteenth birthday of Miss May Hooper her family gave her a surprise party at Goelich's Hall on Orchard avenue Saturday night. There were present about fifty of the young people of the town and a very pleasant evening was passed. The time was spent chiefly in dancing and playing games of whist, euchre and "Five Hundred." A dainty supper was served at 11 o'clock.

Miss Maud Hooper and Miss Vivian Bronson played the piano for the dancers.

WILL BANQUET.

After the installation of the new officers and the initiation of several new members the Elmhurst Druids will sit down to a banquet tomorrow evening. The spread will take place in the dining hall at the headquarters of the lodge.

The exact number to be initiated is not certain as yet, though at least seven are expected. The officers to be installed are as follows: George L. Rodifer, noble arch; Lester Finly, vice-arch; H. G. Clayton, treasurer; Charles S. Alvord, recording secretary; Sidney J. Harris, conductor; Lester Magill, inside guard; P. J. Rogers, outside guard; F. W. J. Schneider, trustee.

"Respect always a silent woman; great is the wisdom of the woman that holdeth her tongue," is a Chinese saying 3000 years old.

LODGE GIVES A DANCE

MEMBERS OF AMERICAN YEOMEN ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS.

SAN LEANDRO, May 9.—Friends of the members of the local lodge of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen were entertained at a dance given last night in the Town Hall. There was served a light repast at midnight. The music was furnished by Bulen's orchestra.

In charge of the affair was a committee under Chairman Mrs. Newton. The floor manager was Charles Smiley.

The women of the lodge assembled yesterday afternoon and decorated the interior of the building very prettily with palms and flowers. The light was supplied from rows of electric globes of various colors strung across the hall.

The drill team of the lodge, composed of twenty young women, is practicing regularly for the contest to be held on May 18 in Watsonville. The San Jose and Watsonville teams will be in the competition, which is for the possession of a handsome silken banner. Last year the San Leandro Lodge was the winner of the trophy, which is kept in the meeting room.

Captain Bulen is the drillmaster, and expects his team to make a fine showing at the convention. The drill lasts about thirty minutes and is said to be very pretty.

LEAGUERS MEET.

The annual meeting of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church here was held at the church building last night. The finances of the society were examined and plans made for raising money for the needs of this year.

Reports were presented by all the officers in the league and filed away for future reference. The past year has been a successful one for the society and for the church and the members think the outlook is very encouraging.

Dr. John Kirby of Alameda preached at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. He is the presiding elder of the San Jose district and a fluent and impressive talker. A large audience attended the service.

PERSONALS.

Budd Eber and A. J. King have just returned from a ten days' trip to Watsonville as the delegates from the local court of Foresters to the State convention. They report a pleasant visit.

Mrs. Edith Herger, wife of the San Leandro night watchman, has just received the news that her father is dead. She has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

ALUMNI ENJOY THE PARTY

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES HAVE THEIR ANNUAL REUNION AND DANCE.

LIVERMORE, May 9.—In spite of threatening weather Saturday night about seventy couples attended the annual hop given by the alumni of the High School at the Sweeney Opera House. In place of the usual social dance the students gave a masquerade this year. The music was furnished by the Livermore orchestra. In past years the alumni affairs have always been the best attended and most enjoyable of the season, but this year the committee in charge surpassed all former efforts and reached the climax of social success in the history of the alumni.

ENJOY PICNIC.

Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery gave a picnic to a large party of friends last Saturday at Cresta Blanca in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell of San Francisco. About twenty were present and the day was pleasantly spent in games and other amusements. A generous lunch was provided by the host and hostess.

THE RAINFALL.

During the storm of Saturday night and Sunday .96 of an inch of rain fell, making a total of 15.45 inches for the year, 2.14 inches more than last year.

PERSONALS.

Robert Wallman of San Francisco spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. J. Wallman.

Miss Lottie Sorensen is home from Pacific Grove on a short visit.

BIDS OPENED FOR ERECTION OF FRANKLIN SCHOOL.

The Work Will Cost the Board of Education in Neighborhood of $50,000.

The Board of Education met last night in special session for the purpose of opening and the consideration of bids for building the Franklin School. Some contractors put in bids to do all of the work while others only bid on certain sections of it. From the bids received it is evident that the building will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000 to complete, for after the building is erected the connection of gas and sewer mains and other work will have to be done.

Owing to the number of bids and the lateness of the hour the Board took an adjournment until this evening to take final action on the awarding of the contracts. The bids in the meantime were referred to the committee on School Houses and Sites for comparison. The lowest bid for the entire work was that of Charles Roeth who offers to do the work for $47,899. It may however be found to be more advantageous to take the lowest of each of the several bids submitted as was done in the last instance.

BIDS ON WORK.

The bids submitted are as follows:

Entire work—W. W. Anderson, $52,997; Chas. Roeth, $47,899; Cook & Young, $54,980; Brucker & Lewis, $52,287.

Entire work excepting marble and tile work—W. W. Anderson, $44,642; Cook & Young, $47,480; Brucker & Lewis, $44,322.

Plastering—James H. Pedgraft, $5,858; C. Christensen, $5,700; Wm. J. Mahedy & Co., $6,100; A. C. McTavish, $9,250.

Painting—L. N. Cobbledick $3,275; A. A. Zelinsky, $2,487; P. N. Kuss, $2,940; Jas. Cahill & Co., $2,825; J. C. Petersen, $2,867; W. W. Tucker, $2300.

Roofing and metal work—Robt. Dalziel Jr. Co., $6,286; Forderer Cornice Works, $6,600; Wm. Cronin, $6000; Conyms, Childers Co., $5,885;

Plumbing—Robert Dalziel Jr. Co., $2,127; Knoch & McMullin, $3,450; J. B. Cruz, $1990; H. Williams & Co., $1,995; Ingram Hardware Co., $2,176; James Rankin, $2,395; W. W. Tucker, $2,497.

Marble and tile work—Ramsden-Griffith & Co., $7,530; W. W. Anderson, $8,355; C. Christensen, $450; H. E. Brown, $8,365; Brucker & Lewis, $7,515; Wm. T. Veitch & Bros., $8,251; Vermont Marble Co, $8,760.

Carpenter work—Ramsden, Griffith Co., $35,241; W. W. Anderson, $27,717; C. Christensen, $34,311; H. E. Brown & Co., $25,071; Brucker & Lewis, $25,528; W. T. Veitch & Bros, $27,329.

SALE OF HOUSES.

The prices offered the Board for a number of houses it has to sell in order to clear lots purchased were not at all satisfactory and most of the bids were rejected, a few however, where the price was considered fair were acceptd. The bids were as follows:

Bids for 616 Fourth street—Mrs. A. Glud, $101; Rich Kingston, $175; Wm. Hadley, $200.

Bids for 827 Eighteenth street—M. Campbell, $250; M. Harrington, $550.

Bids for 1616 Ninth street—E. Pfaukerchen, $236; Thos. L. Whine, $405; C. F. Frederick, $140; F. J. Nielsen, $205.

Bids for 1013 Jackson street—E. Dalton, $616.50; Mrs. W. P. Courtney, $425; H. B. Beiden, $755.

Bid for 834 Seventeenth street—Mrs. J. Fibush, $250.

The only bids accepted were Wm. Hawley of $200 for the 616 Fourth street building; that of Thomas L. Whine of $405 for building at 1616 Ninth street; and that of Mrs. J. Fibush of $250 for the building at 834 Seventeenth street.

The rest were all rejected.

FOUNDATION WORK.

But two bids were received for doing the concrete foundation work of the Grant School. They were those of D. E. Brown for $2,470 and Hillhouse & Reardon for $1935. On motion of Director Pratt the contract was awarded to the firm of Hillhouse & Reardon it being the lowest bidder.

The bonds of the following firms whose bids had been accepted at a previous meeting for finishing material for the new school buildings: Robert Dalziel Jr. Co., Ingram Hardware Company and James Cahill & Co.

The bonds of W. B. Knowles and A. B. Johnson were referred to the Building and Finance Committee for investigation and report.

MAKES CONCESSION TO AUTOMOBILISTS

Automobilists will be made happy by the concession just made by the Southern Pacific Company whereby automobiles may be transported on any of the ferry boats. The following are the rules governing the automobiles while aboard any of the boats:

First—Automobiles will go to the ferry and take the position designated by the representative of the company aboard the boat.

Second—Machines operated solely by gasoline will go on and off the boats under their own power, but when coming to rest on the boat the engine will be stopped and the electric current turned off. The engine will not again be started until the boat has made a landing and instructions are given by the officers of the boat for the machines to leave.

Third—Machines operated by steam must put out all fires, whether main fires under boiler or pilot light fires before going on boat; nor can these fires be lighted until the machine is off the boat at the landing side. Steam machines, however, will be permitted to go on and off the boat under their own steam, without fires, provided the pressure will permit. Otherwise, they must be pushed on and off the boat.

Fourth—Automobiles will be carried on ferry-boats at all hours. Of course mail, baggage and express will be loaded first, then teams and then the balance of the space will be given up to automobiles. The number on each trip will not be limited, and they will be compelled to stand on the rear of the boat, as formerly.

INSANE ATTORNEY

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—Raving mad, George D. Blake, one of the brightest attorneys of the local bar, is a prisoner in his apartments at the Hotel Washington, on South Olive street, tonight, guarded by a male nurse to prevent him from doing himself injury or endangering the lives of others. He will be arrested on an insanity warrant and placed in confinement pending his examination by a lunacy commissioner.

Blake went suddenly insane and besieged the newspapers with tales of an impending suit for the recovery of a $64,000,000 English estate. He thinks that he and Henry E. Huntington, with the spirit help of Stephen M. White and Collis P. Huntington, are to meet in conference for the formation of a two-million-dollar bank.

A few years ago Blake's wife, a beautiful and talented woman, for some time a teacher of literature in an Oakland seminary, died. A medium induced the bereaved man to attempt occult communion with her. This suggestion plunged him in a deep study of psychic literature and led to the final unhinging of his mind. It is feared he is hopelessly insane.

KILLED BY CAR

William B. Frederick, an old man past 70 years of age, residing for a number of years at 562 East Twelfth street, died last night from the injuries he received by being run down by a car at Thirteenth avenue yesterday afternoon. Frederick, who had been living a retired life, went out yesterday afternoon for a short walk. As he was crossing the track he did not notice the outbound car coming, and as the car was running at a high rate of speed it was impossible to stop it before it struck Frederick. He was thrown from the track and was picked up and carried into Bowman's drug store. Dr. Larue was called, and it was necessary to take four stitches in his scalp. He was then carried to his home, where his condition grew worse until he died.

Frederick was an old resident of this city and leaves three sons to mourn his loss. They are Harry W., Alvin C. and Edward P. Frederick.

It was learned last night that Motorman Frederick W. Trethern was in charge of the car. No arrests were made.

A Grim Tragedy
is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by Osgoods' Drug Stores, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington streets. Trial bottle free.

ACCUSES WOMAN

E. Collins Has Former Wife Arrested on Battery Charge.

Catherine Collins was before Police Judge Smith this morning on a charge of battering her divorced husband E Collins, proprietor of the Express and storage company of that name

The scene of the alleged encounter was at the former family home, 953 Thirty-seventh street

It seems that since Mr Collins secured a decree of absolute divorce on the ground of intemperance that his former wife has been accorded the privilege of living with her children in the home where she was once mistress

Her reign as a dethroned housewife is not apparently any more satisfactory than it was before she had been judicially separated from her husband

Last night, according to Collins his wife used her old prerogative of surling dishes at him and accusing him of many offenses

He dodged the things which came his way and sought the police for assistance in taming his ex-wife's spirits

The family of three children and the mother have been living together at the residence above given but now the mother is liable to be punished for taking unwarranted privileges in the home

Judge Smith continued the case three days this morning

DEATH OF J. W. JONES.

MARTINEZ, May 8—John W Jones, a well known resident of Contra Costa county, died here yesterday at the age of 83 years He was the father of Henry T Jones Short funeral services will be held at the family residence here tomorrow at 11 30 a m Services will also be held at the M E Church at Walnut Creek at 2 p m The interment will be in Lafayette Cemetery

RECOVERS CLOTHING

ARMED TO KILL

Had Big Gun and a Desire to "Shoot Up" the City.

D B Stanton is alleged to have last night conceived the idea of 'shooting up' the lower end of the city

He had a long and exceedingly desperate-looking revolver to make his boasts in this matter good

Citizens scattered in all directions when the gun was flourished and Stanton might still be in possession of the lower end of Broadway if Policeman W I Hodgkins had not happened along and placed the man under arrest

At the City Prison he was charged with being drunk and also with carrying concealed weapons

This morning Police Judge Smith decided that the charge of carrying concealed weapons should be changed to that of exhibiting a deadly weapon.

To permit this to be done the case was continued until tomorrow

STRIKE LEADERS GO TO COURT

CHICAGO, May 9—Motion to dissolve all Federal injunctions against the strike leaders on the ground that the bills are supported by insufficient affidavits was made before United States Circuit Judge Kohlsaat today by Attorney J C Leboskey Judge Kohlsaat continued the proceedings until tomorrow, saying he was too busy to hear arguments today

Attorney Mayer for the employers accepted the continuance with Mr Leboskey and the attorneys went to Master in Chancery Sherman's rooms, where the labor leaders had gathered to give testimony desired by the employers' lawyers

President Shea, although subpoenaed failed to appear, but the room was crowded with labor leaders

The commission appointed by Mayor Dunne to investigate the strike started to work in earnest today Attorney Seymour Stedman, representing the Chicago Federation of Labor made a plea for public hearings The commission took the matter under advisement

RELEASED, THEN ARRESTED AGAIN

One charge of grand larceny was dismissed this morning by Police Judge Smith against George W Marsh, an alleged bicycle thief because the owner of the wheel, F B Carlili, could not identify Marsh

The young man was immediately re-arrested however, on another charge.

Marsh was arrested by the San Francisco police ten days ago The young man has been connected with six thefts, but not in a direct manner

He admits having disposed of that number to second-hand stores, but denies that he stole the wheels

He states that all of the bicycles that he sold were given to him by another man

SAYS HE WAS CUT BY HIS FRIEND

C Robinson, a young man twenty-six years of age, living at 2223 Peralta street, was treated at the Receiving Hospital last night for a long ugly cut in the left forearm He said a friend did it by accident and whatever the history of the wound was he went away with it at any rate did not intend to divulge the name of his friend, who, however, did not accompany him to have it attended to The cut was about four inches in length and Dr. L. L. Riggin took several stitches to close the gap and hold it together.

GOVERNOR PARDEE TAKES OFF TIME

SACRAMENTO, May 9—Governor Pardee today commuted the sentence of Frank Kelly, sentenced in 1897 to fifteen years at Folsom for burglary of the first degree, and also commuted the sentence of Espolinario Martinez, sentenced in 1903 to five years at San Quentin for felonious assault committed in Los Angeles county. Both men will be released next Monday.

EMPIRE THEATER.

A complete change of bill from top to bottom and some of the best vaudeville acts in the business, is what the management presented last night to two large appreciative audiences at the Empire Theater

Go To, the Japanese juggler, is a marvel and some of his feats seem incredible He is undoubtedly the best ever in Oakland. Joe Cabral was tendered a flattering reception and sang 'In the Valley of Kentucky," in a very acceptable manner.

A rare treat came with the appearance of Mr. and Mrs Jefferson Holcomb, in what they term "Art and Nonsense" Mrs. Holcomb is a wee bit of humanity, but so jolly and versatile that the audience is "here" from the start. Mr. Holcomb, in artistic selections on the violin, Musin's Mazurka, was loudly applauded

The Eagle Trio made their initial bow to an Oakland audience and received two encores. They are all hard workers and introduce some original comedy which immediately caught on.

To see "Irish Justice," as presented by Barnard, Bonnan and Barnard, is to laugh, and in some instances it is a good satire on human nature. The whole show is one of the best seen in this house

The moving pictures are very humorous and the first time ever seen in Oakland, coming direct from Miles Bros, New York and Paris.

The usual matinees, children five cents

QUIET AT FRONT.

FENGHUASHIEN (80 miles north of Tie Pass), Manchuria, May 9—All was quiet at the front. The weather is warm and the Liao river is in flood.

DAMAGED BY STORM

CINCINNATI, O., May 9.—Reports received today indicate that the damage from the wind and rainstorm which struck this neighborhood late yesterday was more severe than at first indicated. In this city the Trinity Methodist Church was unroofed. The steeple of the Cummnsvide Lutherar Church was blown off and a number of residences in various parts of the city were badly damaged.

ADVANCE PRICE OF LUMBER

MILWAUKEE, May 9.—The price list committee of the Mississippi Valley Lumbermen's Association, the Wisconsin Valley Lumbermen's Association and the Northwestern Hemlock Association has agreed to advance the price on all classes of lumber 50 cents per thousand. The reason given is a decline of the forest and disappearance of timber, resulting in a decrease in the lumber output.

JAPANESE IMMIGRATION IS DISCUSSED.

Central Labor Council Proposes to Call a Mass Meeting to Protest.

Japanese immigration was discussed at length at the meeting of the Central Labor Council last night Among those who spoke in favor of having the little brown men kept at home were C W Petry P W Barton P F Marshal, J B Rebolt, J F Sale and C J Curran

One of the delegates told of a trip he had taken to Watsonville a week ago He stated that he was in a crowded car and that all but eight of those in it were Japanese

Others told of the ruinous competition in the cities and towns to which the immigrants subject the Americans.

MASS MEETING.

It is proposed by the Council to call a great mass meeting of the citizens of Oakland to arouse popular interest in the question No date has been set for the convocation

The Council has been working on the problem for several months since October, 1904. Resolutions have been passed and copies sent to the representatives of California in Congress Answers were received from several of these before the middle of April saying that they would all use their influence in favor of stringent exclusion acts

The Council has the letters from Senators George C Perkins and Frank P Flint and Congressmen D E McKinlay J N Gillette E A Hayes, J R Knowland and J W Needham

LABEL LEAGUE VISITS

Many of the members of the Women's Label League were present at the meeting of the Central Council last night A speech of welcome was made by President Petry and several of the visitors made short addresses

Mrs Williamson who founded the Women's Political Economy Club was one of the speakers, making a most interesting talk on labor conditions Other speakers who spoke were Mrs O'Brian Mrs Robert West, Mrs George Smith and Miss Blace

TO GIVE SOCIAL

At the last meeting of the Miscellaneous Trades Council an invitation was received from the Women's Label League to attend a social to be given at California Hall next Thursday evening The invitation was brought by the committee of the Council appointed to keep in touch with the League It was moved and carried to attend the entertainment in a body Several of the members will be called upon for toasts after the supper, which is to be served during the evening

The national organizer of the cigar makers was at the meeting He spoke at length on the union label relating how it was invented and first used by the Cigar Makers Union in San Francisco He suggested several improvements in the present condition of the unions in California

LESSER TO LEAVE

M Lesser the former president of the Provision Trades Council before it was merged with the Miscellaneous Trades was present also and delivered a thoughtful address on the benefits of the label He announced his intention of removing to San Francisco in a short time

A rising vote of thanks was taken by the Council for the unselfish and faithful work he has done for unionism during the years of his residence here Several of the members spoke appreciatively of Mr Lesser's services C W Petry and T F Marshal of the Central Labor Council each made a long talk in praise of him

The union label and its abuse by the storekeepers of Oakland was much discussed at the meeting Many of the delegates told of instances where the public had been defrauded by the scheming employers In several cases purchasers had asked for goods with the label and had accepted them on being told that the articles were labelled On arriving home the buyers found that they had been deceived and the goods were non-union made.

It is the intention of the council to make an aggressive campaign for the label and to assist in every way the Women's Label League, which has been organized for just this purpose.

AMUSEMENTS

THE NOVELTY.

There is no decrease in the attendance at the Novelty Theater, the excellent bills always seen at this house warrant large audiences and the new program last evening was up to the usual high standard The performance begins with the moving pictures, consisting of The Great Train Robbery' one of the best motion photographs ever presented at a ten cent continuous show house, or in fact on any stage It is very realistic and pleases the little ones as well as the adults. La Toska the Jovial, Jolly, Talkative Juggler" as he is termed, is as clever as usual and is a big favorite, he has been seen here before at this house and is the same success again. Camille Morrell the coster singer is well received and has an exceedingly good voice Princess Chinquilla, the only United States Government Reservation Indian in vaudeville, makes her Pacific Coast bow and is assisted by Edward Newell the cowboy juggler This duo is worth more than the price of admission alone to see They are certainly a good drawing card and a valuable acquisition to any vaudeville house

Dave Barton is far above the average as a comedian and does something new hereabouts he can be voted a hit Franks Maybelle and Flemen are seen in an original sketch entitled Clams It's very funny and the parts taken by the principals are well sustained The second reel of motion pictures are Ali Babi and the Forty Thieves —an entire new picture seen on the coast for the first time Altogether the entertainment is gilt edged The same bill will be presented throughout the week with the usual matinee daily The Penny Arcade is open daily from 1 p m until after the last show in the theater at night The admission to the theater is free Children are admitted to the matinee for five cents

THE BELL THEATER.

It was a great bill of vaudeville that greeted two packed houses at the popular Bell Theater last night The program is a splendid one and was much appreciated

The opening number on the bill the Mayrellias two clever people one of them a boy are entertainers in witty sayings singing, dancing and piano playing They received several encores which they rightly deserved

The animated pictures were of the sensational order and seemed to please Manolita character change artist, is good she has a charming stage presence, is a splendid dancer and she certainly added her share in making the program a good one

W C Wilson in pictured melodies although new to Oakland audiences was an instantaneous success as every nine out of ten of the Oakland theater going public enjoy a good song 'Mr. Wilson has filled with great satisfaction what used to be the one weak feature in the Bell programs

The dancing Howards, two clever darkie impersonators were well received by the audiences and received several curtain calls Miss Mabel Howard, the Scottish nightingale coming direct from Boston to open an engagement with the Bell circuit of houses, is without a doubt the best voiced woman that has yet appeared in vaudeville Her voice is simply grand and her range of notes is phenomenal Miss Howard sang 'Coming Through the Rye is perfect as that beautiful song could be sung

The closing number the Reliance Four have a splendid act, doing stunts that are entirely new and their act made a splendid finish to a good bill

Next week the management announces Miss Francesca Redding and her company of players open their engagement at this theater in their little play My Friend From Texas"

The matinees this week ought to be well attended as the program is one that will appeal very strongly to ladies and children

SCHILLER DAY SET FOR MAY 21

The Schiller memorial celebration which was to have taken place on May 7 at the Greek Theater Berkeley has been postponed to May 21 at 2 30 p m All persons holding tickets issued for May 7 can present the same on May 21 and they will be recognized

CHINESE ORGANIZE.

NEW YORK, May 9—With the sanction and help of the imperial government the Chinese merchants of New York are organizing the commercial association to which every Chinese merchant or proprietary holder will be eligible

It is said the idea originated by former Minister Wu Ting Fang, who, since his return to China, has taken great interest in the commercial relations between his countrymen in China and those in the United States He is in favor, it is understood of forming a great association, with branches in every large American city to further commercial relations between the two countries The objects of the organization will include efforts to prevent certain applications of the exclusion laws and customs regulation which the Chinese consider unjust

STOCKBROKER FAILS.

LONDON May 9—The failure of E C Hawkins a stockbroker, was announced today on the Stock Exchange. He was long about 40,000 shares of stock principally Missouri Pacific U P, Ontario and Western, U S Steel and Mexicans Mr Hawkins' liabilities are estimated from $250,000 to $300,000 A number of small jobbers are involved.

SUFFRAGISTS TO MEET.

The next regular monthly meeting of the Seventh Ward Equal Suffrage Club will be held Thursday at 8 o'clock p m at 563 East Eighteenth street, near Fifth avenue The annual election of officers will be held and the club will have the pleasure of welcoming Miss Whelan and Mrs Greenman who were greatly missed while abroad All are welcome

A Good Suggestion.

Mr C B Wainwright of Lemon City Fla has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drank That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity It seems to get at the right spot instantly, he says For sale by Osgood Bros corner Twelfth and Washington streets and corner Seventh and Broadway

THE DELINEATOR

"The Most Necessary of All Magazines Published for Women"

The June Issue contains 182 pages, 78 devoted to Fashions and 104 to Home and General Features—182 pages in all

This reproduction cannot present the beautiful coloring of the June front cover It is one of George Gibbs American Girls

Get the June Issue—Out To-Day

IN THIS ISSUE is presented as a fitting companion feature to Mrs. Berkeley-Loyd's "Fashions in New York" no less an authority than Edouard La Fontaine, who will furnish us with the text and illustrations each month for our Paris Letter.

M. La Fontaine is without peer on the European continent as a dress critic and a writer on all topics pertaining to fashions. Besides this, he is an artist of great individuality, as is shown by his sketches which are reproduced in his Paris Letter. They have a style and an atmosphere about them distinctly Parisian. Known personally to all the famous dress creators in the various fashion centres of Europe, he has free access to their establishments and "private views" of their latest productions long before they are seen in public. Under the arrangement just concluded, M. La Fontaine will contribute to THE DELINEATOR exclusively in America.

ANNA BURNHAM WESTERMANN, whose charming drawings have appeared for some time in THE DELINEATOR, illustrating the styles described in the "Fashions in New York," is well known as a creator of figures of living grace, which, without lessening in any way their value as fashion drawings, lifts them far beyond the plane of the usual fashion plate. Mrs. Westermann's women are sweet and womanly and, better than all for your purpose, they know how to wear their dresses. They are always well groomed, and their appearance each month in THE DELINEATOR will surely be welcomed by all of its readers. Hereafter Mrs. Westermann's fashion drawings will appear only in THE DELINEATOR.

BEAUTIFUL FASHION ILLUSTRATIONS IN COLORS

ROMANCES OF SUMMER RESORTS," by Weymer Jay Mills, begins in this number. No series of tales published for some time promises so much of general interest as these charmingly reminiscent tales Their delightful telling and the quaint old pictures which accompany them assure enjoyment to every reader.

A TRAVEL SKETCH that is brimful of interest is F. Berkeley Smith's description of "A CORNER IN NORMANDY" It is interesting as a story and gives you more than a passing glance at one of the most curious nooks in the old world.

THE third installment of Albert Bigelow Paine's "THE LUCKY-PIECE," and another of the "SON RILEY RABLIT" tales by Grace MacGowan Cooke, together with the many regular departments, make this issue a remarkable one "THE PRACTICAL SIDE OF A WEDDING," in the Home Department, discusses fully the problem of bringing the wedding festivities within a reasonable expenditure
